Mistrial ruling enrages ex-wife

Michael Janik, charged with setting his ex-wife ablaze, won a new trial Thursday in a courtroom ruling that enraged the woman. A judge said the prosecuting attorney went too far in questioning the defendant.

BY DARRELL CLEM

A Detroit Recorder's Court judge declared a mistrial Thursday for a former Westland man accused of setting his ex-wife on fire, prompting an emotional outburst from the distraught woman.

"You can't do that!" screamed Karen Janik, 30, after Judge Bruce Morrow declared a mistrial for Michael Janik, 41, charged with assault with intent to murder and arson.

Standing up in the courtroom, Karen Janik also turned to her exhusband's family members and lashed out at them.

"Why do you people want him off for?" she asked in tears, questioning why relatives want Michael Janik cleared of charges.

"Go ahead! Let him go! Let him go!" Karen Janik sobbed as authorities led her from the courtroom. "What's wrong with you people?"

Her outburst marked a dramatic ending to the third day of a trial that Morrow has rescheduled for Jan. 8. The new trial will come one year and six days after Michael Janik, a former Garden City resident, is accused of trying to kill his ex-wife at his 455 S. Hawthorne residence.

Janik, a former Westland and Garden City resident now living in Can-Thursday with family members. He family posted $7,000 of a $70,000/10 percent bond.

The judge declared a mistrial Thursday after assistant Wayne County prosecutor Jerry Dorsey IV, trying to discredit Michael Janik's testimony from Wednesday, questioned him about statements he may have made to police after the Jan. 2 incident.

Prosecutor warned

Dorsey had implied in front of a ton Township, left the courtroom jury that the defendant fabricated a new version to aid in his defense, but has been free since Feb. 13, when his Morrow ruled that Dorsey's line of questioning went too far and may have violated Michael Janik's rights.

There had been nothing on the court record about any prior statements made by Michael Janik, and Morrow's ruling stemmed from concerns that Dorsey exposed jury members to issues they shouldn't have Dorsey said in court that he wanted to impeach Michael Janik as a witness because of alleged inconsistencies in his statements. Morrow had warned Dorsey to approach the issue delicately.

Cop admits holding onto evidence

BY DARRELL CLEM STAFF WRITER

A veteran Canton Township police officer, testifying in his brother-inlaw's trial on an attempted murder charge, admitted having potential evidence in his possession that he never turned over to police.

But officer George C. Sharp, under intense questioning from a prosecutor, denied Wednesday that he meant to conceal evidence to protect Michael Janik, who is charged with trying to kill his wife, Karen, by setting her on fire.

Sharp testified that he was given Karen Janik's clothing when he and his wife, Candace, visited her at the University of Michigan Hospital on Jan. 2. That was the same day Karen Janik said her ex-husband doused her with lighter fluid and set her ablaze with a cigarette lighter at their former Westland residence.

Sharp, an 18-year Canton officer, said he was given Karen Janik's shoes, blue jeans, bra and panties. The shoes were damaged during the Sharp testified that he kept the clothing until after Michael Janik was arraigned Jan. 10 on charges of arson and assault with intent to murder. He said in court that he didn't think of the clothing as evidence.

When he did turn over the clothing, Sharp said he gave it not to Westland police or Wayne County prosecutors. but to defense attorney W. Otis Culpepper. Culpepper brought the items to court Wednesday.

Low bidders on library upset at city council

BY DARRELL CLEM STAFF WRITER

Some business executives are criticizing the Westland City Council for rejecting low bids for library work in favor of highercost union companies.

"I'm outraged, and I think the people of Westland should be, too," said Jim Sinn of Westland, chief estimator for McMurray Electric of Ferndale.

Jim Long, president of Long Mechanical Inc. of Northville, said, "It's unfortunate that the integrity of the public bidding process has been denied due to the actions of the Westland City Council."

The two companies had been recommended by the construction manager and the city administration for work on the William P. Faust Public Library of Westland, to be built on Central City Parkway between Ford Road and Warren.

But the council, under pressure from some 30 skilled trades union workers who attended a meeting last week, rejected the low bidders. Council members said they believed the union companies would do a better job.

McMurray bid $569,645 for electrical work on the library but lost to Gillis Electric Inc. of Livonia, which bid $616,445.

Long Mechanical bid $751,000 for plumbing and heating/air-conditioning work, but the council chose another company, Alpha, for $787,606.

The two council-chosen bids amounted to $1,404,051, a difference of $83.406 over the low bidders. The bids were in a package of five bids; the council chose the low bidder for three other jobs.

Robert McChesney, McMurray president, said the council "obviously" chose a higher bidder because of union pressure.

"I just wish they would have come out and said that," he said.

Sinn said McMurray has been in business for 18 years, "and we are a good contractor."

The Livonia school district is among the company's customers. Council comments that McMurray's work might not compare to Gillis are "just not true," Sinn said.

Long's firm also has a history of big jobs, including such customers as Wayne County, Long said. He said last week's developments appeared to be "set up," and he noted that council members didn't even ask his firm any questions during the meeting.

Councilman Charles Griffin last week had said the selected bidders would do a "tremendously better" job.

2 youths held in purse snatching

BY DARRELL CLEM STAFF WRITER

A Westland teen and a Livonia juvenile are in custody for a purse snatching outside of a Westland supermarket, and the juvenile has been linked to at least one of two other such incidents at the same store, police said.

The latest of the three recent purse snatchings occurred at 1 p.m. Aug. 20 outside of Danny's at Joy and Merriman, Westland police Sgt. Scott Fetner said.

Piccadilly Petal'er - including Mierzejewski, his wife, Linda, daughter-in-law Peggy, Betty Lavely and Kathy Evans, who attends Plymouth Canton High School — wanted to do something different with the bouquets this year. Last year, they used roses.

"We wanted to go back in time to resemble that period of the Renaissance," Mierzejewski said.

His choices included Queen Anne's lace — found along I-275 - as well as wild wheat and gladioli, "They really looked sharp. They had multiple colors. We also had hand-tied bows with them. Each bouquet had 12-15 flowers each. It is costly. But the ramifications of getting our name out are worth it.'

The wedding at which Mierzejewski's bouquets were used was held in the jousting area of the festival with an official minister. "Even Elvis showed up. Now we know he is alive," he said, adding that an Elvis look-alike was one of the grooms.

"The brides and the grooms all did their vows. They all said their names," Mierzejewski said.

Piccadilly Petal'er also provided flowers for the festival's new King Edward and Queen Kathryn - coronated this past weekend and the entire royal court. "We had so many compliments," Mierzejewski said.

Beginning on Monday, Aug. 14, the store staff began getting flowers together for the bouquets and boutonnieres. By Wednesday and Thursday of the week, the bouquets were being assembled. "We put them in the cooler in buckets of water to keep them," Mierzejewski said. The 16th annual celebration of the Michigan Renaissance Festival takes visitors back in time to the 16th century European Renaissance. The festival continues through Labor Day weekend at Upsom Downs in Holly.

New Wayne-Westland teachers get tour of district

By Leonard Poger

Wayne-Westland school bus 89 had a different load of passengers on a special "field trip" Wednesday afternoon.

Driver Sharon Conley bused some 25 passengers on what the "tour director" said would be a snapshot of the sprawling 66square mile district.

What the passengers, among the 48 new teachers hired by the district this summer, got was a wide-angle mural of the school system.

The bus tour, led by Greg Baracy, assistant superintendent for general administration, and Terry Wood, newly-appointed community relations director, was intended to give the new faculty members a sense of the size of the district, which takes in parts of five municipalities, and a window view of many of the schools.

The new teachers represented the largest number hired by the district since the early 1970s.

The new faculty members are a result of a retirement incentive program of which 160 teachers and 21 administrators took advantage.

Some new teachers didn't take the bus tour because they had subbed in the district for several years and knew the school community.

But others who were familiar with the school system still took the tour and enjoyed it.

One, Laura Messer, said she is excited about her new assignment as an English teacher at John Glenn High and Marshall Middle School.

But she is no stranger to the High.

For the past eight years, Messer, 47, was an English and art teacher in the district's adult education department.

Westland, feel that it's an excellent educational opportunity and offers a lot for students and parents when they want to get involved," Messer said while the bus traveled up and down major roads in Westland, Canton Township and Wayne.

Another passenger, Linda Cox, admitted she is "scared" about starting her new career. She is assigned to a fourth-grade class at Walker Elementary.

In her early 40s, Cox was in computer technology for the TRW Company before resigning two years ago to attend school full time and earn her degree and teaching certificate.

district, as she was driven past her former schools, Stevenson Junior High, which she attended when it opened in the fall of 1968, and Wayne Memorial

The bus tour also included two small personal touches for directors Baracy and Wood.

While moving south on Howe near Annapolis in the southern half of Wayne, Wood pointed to the frame house in which she grew up. Then Baracy pointed to the residential neighborhood to the east in which he was raised.

During the bus trip, Baracy stressed that the district's southwestern boundary zigzags along Palmer Road all the way to Canton Center Road and all the way east to Inkster and Dearborn Heights.

Providing a brief history of "I feel dedicated to Wayne the district, he noted that at its peak 10 years ago after the annexation of the Cherry Hill district, Wayne-Westland had some 24,000 students.

Now it has declined to some 14,700, he said.

That resulted in the closing of numerous school buildings, including four elementaries in June.

Touching on the changing demographics of the district, Baracy said while there are newsubdivisions and homes opening at a rapid pace, studies show that there are only .4 of a child in each new home.

During the enrollment increases, decades ago, there were more than three children per household.

All teachers, new and But she is no stranger to the returnees, are scheduled to open the new school year with two days of meetings Monday and Tuesday. Students start the new year with a half-day of classes Wednesday and Thursday. The first full day is Friday.

Happy camper: Teacher Laura Messer makes it clear that she is excited about being a school district faculty member after completing a special bus tour of the district.

Field trip leader: School administrator Greg Baracy tells his 25 bus passengers about the Wayne-Westland school district during a tour Wednesday afternoon.

Special passengers: Some 25 Wayne-Westland school district teachers spend an hour on a school bus last week to get a peek at the size of the system.

School bells ring for new Livonia teachers

During the two tours, the new teachers got to unravel some of the mysteries of a district which includes about 35 square miles in Livonia, plus the northern part of Westland.

And, on Friday, after two days of moving as a group, the newcomers split up and scattered to the school building where they've been assigned to spend their first year as a district staffer.

who run it. "It's great to get new fresh blood in all the buildings," said Franklin principal Michael Fenchel after the new teachers ate lunch Wednesday in the school's new computerized library media center. "Livonia schools has a complex interview procedure, and for you to be here it's a credit to each one of you."

The interviews, complete with meetings with teachers the applicant would be working with, is what convinced Donna Kirk to join the school team. "I left the interview saying, boy, this is where I want to work," said Kirk, a speech pathologist who will divide her time between Hull, Nankin Mills (in Westland) and Kennedy elementaries.

Many veterans

In saying "new teachers," one might assume we're talking about teachers just out of college who are tackling their first teaching assignment. But for many of the new teachers, this is not so.

Cathleen Karlson, who will teach special education students at Roosevelt, logged in more than 10 years of teaching in Indiana, Ohio and Michigan.

Carol DeBeaudry, hired as an occupational therapist for both Webster and the Northwest Wayne Skill Center, on Ann Arbor Trail west of Merriman, has worked more than 20 years in Indiana, Michigan and California, including a three-year stint with the Visiting Nurse Association of Metro Detroit.

Tammie Colling, who will teach criminal justice technology at the Livonia Career/Technical Center, is no stranger to police work. She's coming to Livonia from the Canton Police Department, where she worked as a police officer.

Alan Essenmacher taught electronics at Henry Ford Community College and Wayne-Westland's Ford VocTech Center before joining the staff at the Livonia Career/Technical Center.

Many of the teachers, though, are newly-minted, fresh from student and substitute teaching as ing degree into a job teaching bisignments.

In his stint as student teacher at Wayne-Westland's John Glenn High, Mark Parrish heard about a physics opening at Franklin High, which serves the northeast corner of Westland.

Todd Mai spent five years as a substitute teacher in the district before landing a 5th/6th grade teaching job at Roosevelt.

Others, such as Stacy Mase and Leslie Brach, spent just a few months as a student teacher before snagging their first job. Jay Young, director of community services, told the newcomers how they were taking their place in a district which willingly shelled out $20 million for the "fabulous technology" now in all buildings and another $40 million to renovate all buildings.

Randy Liepa, assistant superintendent for business, spotlighted the district's annual budget -$116 million — and told where the money comes from.

"But no matter what our resources are, the most important way we impact our students is through our teachers," Liepa said.

David Watson, director of operations, then led the new teachers on a walking tour of what he called "a city within a city," the district's massive central office complex at Five Mile and Farmington. Here, right in their workplace, they met such behind-the-scenes supervisors as Steve Woodworth, transportation; Wayne Roberts, maintenance; Eileen Urick, purchasing, Michael Caperton, wareing, and Constance Henne, community services coordinator, While mechanics, printers and forklift drivers went about their jobs, the supervisors showed off their small part of the district that helps keep the schools running. They told the newcomers the main reason Livonia's 1,000member support staff exists — to make the teachera' jobs easier.

Teachers benefit when buses run smoothly, maintenance work is done quickly, and supplies are on hand when needed, they said.

"We're here to help you do your work as teachers," said Whitefoot, standing next to his humming offset printers, "You don't have to spend hours at the Xerox machine. Let us do the printing, and you do the teaching."

Bus drivers Shannon Scott and Edith Bryant then whisked the new teachers off on two of the district's new 78-passenger buses for a quick tour of the district and a look at several schools,

"This whole day sets the tone for the school year," Young said. "It's an eye-opener for the teachers to see the support services we have. When Howard (Whitefoot) says 'don't stand at the Xerox ma-hy do so many babies get their start in life at a Mission Health birthing facility? Maybe it's that Mission Health offers families more options in birthing facilities than any other area hospital network. Like LDR and LDRP rooms. Short-stay options. And high- and low-risk settings to match your particular needs. Maybe it's the availability of doctors throughout Washtenaw, Livingston, westem Wayne and Oakland counties. Or nurse midwives available through Providence: Maybe it's the classes to help even first-time parents feel like experts. Or the options for pain relief, including labor epidurals, Jacuzzi tubs and other forms of water therapy. Maybe it's the commitment to quality care, where delivering healthy babies to healthy mons is one of our most important goals.

Longer runway not necessarily necessary — Duggan

BY MARJORIE KAUTH-KARJALA SPECIAL WRITER

Building an international tradeport at Willow Run Airport is not necessarily contingent on extending the northeast runway at the airport, said Wayne County Deputy Executive Mike Duggan.

"The runway extension is one possible project of the tradeport." but is not the only project, Duggan said. "The decision of the runway is under review right now and I think there will be a very significant announcement in a few weeks," Duggan said.

Duggan said other aspects of the tradeport plan, such as improving the taxiways at the airport and making infrastructure improvements in the surrounding areas could be done without extending the runway.

The runway extension has run into strong opposition from residents in Canton Township as well as political opposition from Wayne County commissioners Thaddeus McCotter and Bruce Patterson.

McCotter represents the 10th District, which includes Plymouth, Plymouth Township and part of Livonia. Patterson represents the 11th commission District, which stretches from Canton to Huron townships and east to Wayne and Romulus.

Opposed to tradeport

McCotter and Patterson have vowed to fight the tradeport by involving concerned citizens in their districts. The plan is to circulate petitions, contact state officials and organize community groups against the tradeport.

McCotter said he is opposed to the tradeport, with or without the runway extension. He said approving the tradeport would lessen control of future runway exten-

"If we get baited into creating the tradeport now, we will have no defense should the tradeport's governing board decide to extend the runway," McCotter said.

He also doubted whether a tradeport could legally be established without a runway extension.

The legislation allowing tradeports calls for a master plan that

M 'Bruce Patterson would be against (County Executive) Ed McNamara if he found a cure for cancer.'

> Mike Duggan Deputy executive

shows transportation assets.

McCotter also questioned the claim that the tradeport would create jobs, especially without the extended runway.

McCotter opposed the $45,000 federally-funded study of the tradeport concept at a Wayne County Economic Development Committee meeting last Wednesday. The committee approved the study on a 3-2 vote, Patterson and McCotter voted against the study while Detroit commissioners Edna Bell, Robert Blackwell and Kenneth Cockrel supported the study. Commissioner Michelle Plawecki was not present. Commissioner Bernard Parker was excused from the meeting.

McCotter is chairman of that committee and Patterson is a member.

Duggan

Commission to vote

Final approval for the study must be given by the full commission. The vote is scheduled for Thursday, Aug. 31.

Duggan said he has been working closely with Canton Township Supervisor Thomas Yack and other officials to develop a revised tradeport plan.

An environmental study shows there would be a lot of noise impact for residents north of the airport if the runway was extended, Duggan said. Yack confirmed his involvement in the discussions.

"At this point, I think the concept is one that my board is thinking about," Yack said. "The fact there will not be a runway extension is a real plus for our community," Yack said.
But Yack said he was not completely sold on the tradeport plan.

"When somebody floats an idea, I want to know where it has been tried before and what success it has had. No one has really shared that with me," said Yack.

There is no guarantee that businesses will spring up at the tradeport, Yack said. The tradeport concept is based on the idea of "kind of building it and they will come," Yack said.

Thomas Fegan, of Washtenaw County and co-chair of the tradeport steering committee, said the tradeport concept was started in 1992 when General Motors closed a plant near the airport and 4,500 people lost their jobs.

Court hearing delayed

A court hearing was postponed Thursday for an Inkster man accused of robbing the Taco Bell on Merriman Road, south of Cherry Hill, in Westland.

Kevin Alexander Polk, 38, has been referred for a competency examination to determine whether he is able to aid in his own defense.

Polk is accused in a July 21 robbery in which a lone suspect took $35 from Taco Bell. The suspect demanded money after claiming to have a gun in the waistband of his pants.

The 9:17 p.m. incident was reported to Westland police by a customer who saw the robbery from a drive-through lane.

Has your Mom had a mammogram?

The risk of breast cancer increases with age. It is one of the leading causes of death among women 65 and older. Early detection through regular mammograms could prevent many of these deaths. ### Back-to-school info a phone call away?

BY EMORY DANIELS STAFF WRITER

Parents who want back-toschool information have at least three options — two of them very easy.

First, you could drive down to the local school board office, find a parking spot, walk inside and search for the bulletin board with back-to-school information or find an available clerk to give you the desired hand-out.

Second, you can call Smart Start at 1-313-953-2001 if you live in Wayne County or 1-810-901-4750 if you live in Oakland County. This voice-mail system allows you to easily access starting dates and times for your local school district at the punch of a button. Also available on Smart Start, comation on special programs for youth dealing with manners, selfesteem, and drug prevention.

Third, you can sit down at your personal computer at home and through a modem and Internet connection access Smart Start at the O&E's World Wide Web page at http://oeonline.com. With a few clicks of the mouse, you can access school starting information on your district and detailed information on Jacobson's special programs for youth.

The Web site offers the most up-to-date example of how userfriendly technology can provide residents with practical information they need for their daily

New Dimensions is a series of free self-esteem workshops for girls ages 10-13. This four-week program conducted in the store covers such topics as: A Sharper Image; Techno Beauty and Makeover; Bodyline; and fashion information. A fashion show ends the series.

Willow Run from page 5A

Tradeport concept

The area, which includes about 6,700 acres on the border of Van Buren and Ypsilanti townships, has industrial potential because it has enough vacant land, a vacant factory and easy access to transportation, Fegan said.

In addition to air transportation, two rail lines run through the airport and I-94 and I-275 are very close, Fegan said.

A successful tradeport could create 25,000 new jobs, Fegan said.

Patterson said although he has not been directly involved in the discussions, he understands that changes in the tradeport plan may add an extension of the airport's east-west runway rather than the northeast runway. "They're trying to find a compromise and have the opposition dissipate," Patterson said. "But I'm not lessening my opposition," he said.

Duggan denied that the new plan includes any extension of the east-west runway. "There's a reconstruction but not an extension of it," Duggan said.

The improvements would be paid for through some type of funding authority that would capture existing state or local taxes, Duggan said. However, the legislation for this funding mechanism has not been approved by the state Legislature. The runways at Willow Run do not accommodate a fully-loaded 747. One cargo airline, Kalitta Flying Service Inc., recently moved some of its operations to Indiana. Duggan said the jets currently used at Willow Run have no trouble except for the days of exceptional high humidity or rain. Duggan said only 5 to 10 percent of Kalitta's flights were diverted to Detroit Metropolitan Airport because of weather.

Runway extension

The runway extension, which would jut out of the airport in a northeasterly direction, would mean that part of Ecorse Road would have to be moved. The county has already bought and demolished several houses in the Denton and Ecorse road areas so that Ecorse Road could be moved.

Duggan said he would confer with McCotter regarding the new plan but is skeptical about any swaying of Patterson.

"Bruce Patterson would be against (County Executive) Ed McNamara if he found a cure for cancer." Duggan said.

Traveler abundance expected Labor Day

Sizzling summer weather and cheaper gas prices should make this the busiest Labor Day weekend for motorists in at least 11 years, according to the American Automobile Association.

AAA estimates 29.6 million motorists plan to vacation 100 miles or more from home during the holiday weekend, up 2 percent from 29 million a year ago.

Eighty-eight percent of all holiday travel will be by auto, light truck or recreational vehicle. Auto travel intentions are the highest since AAA began reporting on Labor Day travel in 1985.

The average price of self-serve regular unleaded gasoline has dropped 0.5 cent since the Fourth of July holiday and now stands at $1.178 per gallon.

Another 4.1 million people are expected to take a trip by airplane, train or bus, a 2.5 percent increase from 4 million in 1994. This modest increase comes after last year's 11 percent jump in travel by air, train or bus.

Research data for Labor Day are based on a national telephone survey of 1,500 adults by the U.S. Travel Data Center, which conducts research for AAA.

The greatest volume of Labor Day auto travel will originate in the West with 7.3 million, followed by the Southeast with 6.3 million; Northeast, 5.8 million; Midwest, 5.5 million; and the Great Lakes, 4.7 million.

The most popular Labor Day destination will be a trip to a city, where 24 percent of the travelers expect to visit; followed by town or rural area, 22 percent; ocean or beach, 18 percent; lake area, 15 percent; mountain area, 9 percent; state/national park, 4 percent; theme/amusement park, 3 percent; and other/undecided, 5 percent.

Of those traveling, 43 percent will stay overnight in a hotel or motel, while 27 percent intend to stay with friends or relatives. Other planned accommodations are: Camper/trailer/RV or tent, 12 percent; cabin/condo, 8 percent; boat/ship, 2 percent; bed & breakfast, 1 percent; and other, 1 percent. Six percent are undecided or aren't staying overnight.

AAA is a not-for-profit federation of 113 motor clubs with more than 1,000 offices.

TASTE BUDS

CHEF LARRY JANES

Can your way out of a gardening pickle

can remember when the Janes Gang owned a family cottage just off Pointe Pelee. One of our stops was a a little bakery in Essex. Their crusty dinner rolls tasted equally good slathered with peanut butter or stuffed with ham, cheese, turkey, lettuce and tomato.

Brewer's Retail was where we stopped for a case of Canadian beer - Old Vienna was dad's

We knew we were getting close when we could smell the pickle vats at the Heinz factory in Leamington.

Delicious memory

I never liked pickles until one day, after the umpteenth free tour, an avant-garde tour guide reached over and grabbed a freshly packed jar from a bustling assembly line and opened it for all who wished to try.

Since that day, I can't get enough. Now that's certainly not to say that I'm a lover of Heinz pickles, and for the record, they do make a classic dill spear. Since that day, I've grown to love homemade pickles "put up" by someone who knows how to do it right.

Pickles have a taste and reputation all their own. Anyone who has ever ventured into a Jewish deli and savored a crisp "new" dill can appreciate what pickle nirvana is all about.

Folks in western Wayne County who have ventured into Getsie's Pub in downtown Northville might remember Dorothy, the evening waitress who used to make a dill pickle that tasted to me what a prime steak must taste like to a cowboy. She was and always will be remembered as my pickle "queen."

But judging from my voice mail requests there are others of you out there who are also searching for the best pickle recipe. Good news folks. This is prime pickle season and have I got the recipes for you.

Pickling cucumbers planted with love and care in May blossomed abundantly during our humid and wet July and August bringing forth a bumper crop of some of the fattest cukes I have ever set my eyes upon. Now a good pickler knows that the smaller and less fat a pickling cuke is. the better it will taste, not to mention the fact that it will have fewer seeds.

If the thought of pickling makes you grimace with thoughts of simmering pots and boiling jars, especially during these dog days of summer, look for a pickling crock. Check out old hardware stores for the best deals, but if your garden is spewing forth pickles, and you need one fast, they are available at Kitchen Glamor Stores, Hertler's Farm and Garden in Ann Arbor (what a fun old store to browse through on a hazy summer day) and most antique shops. Couple the crocks with a cool basement and you'll be soon in pickle heaven.

Of course, those not willing to be patient and allow the pickles to ripen slowly in the pickling juices can take heed as we have even included recipes that can be made in days rather than weeks.

Anyone who has ever made pickles knows that if you make one jar, you might as well make a dozen. Any of our recipes will do either. The most difficult task when making pickles is sterilizing the jars and making sure the lids fit tight-

The folks at Ball Jars and Kerr Glass both have very respectable books available for purchase at your local book store or gourmet shop. They are paperback, very inexpensive, and spell out everything the first time canner or pickler needs to know.

Canning pointers

I like to utilize a little trick I learned years back-when canning was something I thought I had to do. Sterilize your jars by running them through the rinse and drying cycle of your dishwasher (no soap, please!). You can also find everything you need to know about canning, pickling and food dehydration at your local library and through your county extension ser-

The folks at Kerr Glass even have a Consumer Affairs Department that can answer your immediate canning and pickling questions during normal business hours. Their toll free phone number is 1-(800)-654-6249.

Kids plus Gooking equals leading

Yumm:Yogurt popsicles are easy to make, no mess and, according to 5-year-old Alexandra Collin, taste great.

BY BARBARA WILSON

Children + cooking = mess. Children + cooking = fun and learning.

To most parents of young children, the first equation would come to mind first when thinking about mixing kids and cooking.

To those parents who give it a try and are willing to sit back and look at the experience as a whole, the outcome will certainly be fun and educational above all else.

Marilyn Romack of the New Morning School in Plymouth said she likes to combine cooking with class work whenever possible because it provides so many lessons. Math skills, science skills, early reading skills, small motor skills, following directions and teamwork should all be listed among the ingredients of any recipe, she says.

The key when starting out is be patient and don't worry about keeping the kitchen clean (maybe cook with the kids the day before cleaning day so you won't feel so stressed). Use aprons to protect clothing, use a large bowl to control spillage and let kids crack eggs in a separate bowl so shells don't get mixed in with the cookies.

Next, let the kids do the work. It's their lesson to learn and their project to feel good about.

Cooking foods that the family can eat is great. Lessons about making healthy food choices can be incorporated in the mix. In the Feelin' Groovy summer class at New Morning School, teacher Ann Murray had her students replace margarine with applesauce in a chocolate chip cook recipe, and they made yogurt freezer pops as a good summer cooler.

Some foods, however, can be eaten and can be learning tools in themselves. Romack recommends a recipe for bread sticks or pretzels that the family dessert.

Interesting science lessons can be learned from mixing up a batch of gelatin in a large glass bowl, partially chilling it, and letting the kids drop in certain treats - marshmallows, fruit, raisins, etc. - to see which ones float and which ones sink. Finish chilling the gelatin for a

Finally some kitchen/food activities are just great crafts that can be enjoyed together. In the Mish Mash Mania class this summer at New Morning School, teacher Ann Sufran had her 3- to 6-year-olds coat a sheet of construction paper with glue mixed with water and then sprinkled spices on top. The smelly collage was a lesson in the various scents produced by spices and how they blend. The resulting artwork is pretty interesting, too.

You might also try making edible necklaces out of cereals, pastas or other circular food.

Whatever the project, make it together and enjoy it together. Moms, dads, brothers, sisters, grandmas and grandpas, aunts and uncles can all get into the act for a great time that blends learning and fun with a little cooking on the side.

recess. And a kid-approved menu topped off with a special treat is sure to bring big smiles and even bigger hugs. 🖡

Smart moms know three important things about kids. First, "mini" is fun. Kids love sandwiches made on miniature bagels, individual boxes of cereal, small containers of yogurt, string cheese, mini rice cakes spread with peanut butter, chicken nuggets and "baby" vegetables. Secand, when kids have a say in what goes into their lunch box, they're more likely to eat what's packed. Finally, a sweet treat makes lunch extraspecial.

Lunches

■ Smaller Appetites — If half of the lunch you pack comes back home, you're probably packing too much. Try half a sandwich and switch to finger foods.

Little Extras — Brighten your child's day with a clever note, colorful stickers, a funny picture, a small prize, or an unexpected goo-

■ Squish Prevention — Use unbreakable plastic containers. Select sturdy foods (apples instead of peaches) or carefully wrap and cushion more-fragile items. Pack the heaviest items on the bottom of the lunch box.

Fruit 'n' Veggie Tips — For easier eating, cut oranges and apples into quarters. (Brush cut surfaces of apples with orange or lemon juice to prevent browning). Buy baby carrots and/or cut veggies into fun shapes. Use a plastic drinking straw to make fruit kabobs. Pack lettuce and thinly (fill muffin pan half full of batter, sliced tomato to be added to a sandwich just before eating.

■ Peer Pressure — Even little kids feel the pressure to eat what their friends are eating, so be sure to ask your child for input when selecting lunchtime menus.

■ Be Creative — Roll sliced turkey and cheese inside a flour tortilla; hide a spoonful of peanut butter inside an oatmeal muffin add peanut butter and top with more batter); and use large cookie cutters to cut sandwich bread into interesting shapes.

Other kid-pleasing creations. that are just right for lunch boxes and snacks all year long are available free in a new brochure from Quaker. To order, send your name and address to: Celebrations!, 332 S. Michigan Ave., Dept. N, Chicago, IL 60604.

ALPHABET BREADSTICKS

package active dry yeast 11/2 cups warm water, about

110 degrees F. 1 tablespoon honey

onion salt

2 cups all-purpose flour 2 cups whole wheat flour melted margarine or butter garlic selt, seasoning salt or Place yeast in a large bowl. Add warm water and honey and stir. Let the mixture sit for a few minutes until bubbly. Stir in all-purpose flour. Add whole wheat flour, 1/2 cup at a time. Mix thoroughly after each addition of flour, using a heavy wooden spoon or your hands. Dust additional flour over a smooth surface and turn the dough onto it. Knead dough for 10 minutes. Grease a baking sheet. Cut the dough into quarters, then cut each quarter into eight pieces. Roll each piece of dough until it is 8 inches long, place it on the baking sheet, and form it into the shape of a letter. Brush the letters with melted butter and lightly sprinkle with one of the salts. Let rise in a warm, draft-free place for 15 minutes. Bake at 400 degrees for 15 minutes.

Activities: place the alphabet breadsticks on a tray and have your child name the letters, let each child select a letter and name it, make breadsticks to spell out the child's name or. other simple words, make pairs of letters and let your child pick out the matching letters.

Makes 32 alphabet breadsticks.

PRETZELS

1½ cups warm water 1 envelope yeast

4 cups flour

I teaspoon salt 2 tablespoons sugar

1 egg coarse salt

Mix together warm water, yeast and sugar. Set aside for 5 minutes. Put salt and flour in a bowl. Add yeast mixture and mix together to form dough. Shape dough into creative shapes. Beat 1 egg and brush onto dough shapes with a pastry brush. Sprinkle on coarse sale.

SHORTBREAD PUZZLES

2 cups flour, white or whole wheat

Bake at 425 degrees for about 12

¼ cup honey 1/2 cup (1 stick) margarine

1 teaspoon water

Place flour and butter in a bowl. Rub butter into flour. Add enough honey to moisten into a dough. Use a rolling pin to roll out dough, about % inch thick. Cut into a retangular shape. Prick all over with a fork. Use a plastic knife to cut into large puzzle pieces. Arrange on a baking sheet. If desired brush with a mixture of 1 beaten egg and 1 teaspoon water for a glossy look. Bake in a 350-degree oven for 20 to 30

MUD PIE

1 cup butter or margarine 2 8-ounce packages cream

cheese 2 cups powdered sugar

7 cups milk 4 3½-ounce packages instant

vanilla pudding 2 12-ounce cartons Cool Whip Oreo cookles smashed gummy worms

Mix all the ingredients together, except cookies and worms, and stir until smooth. Pour mixture into a plastic flower pot (washed of course and with the drainage hole plugged). Alternate the pudding mixture with a layer of the smashed cookies and some works. Top with a layer of the cookies.

This is a great dessert for kids parties. Put it on the table with a silk plant and fool the kids by just taking a big spoonful and eating it. This makes a large container of mud pie, cut ingredients back for a smaller pie.

EASY DONUTS

Oil for frying Hungry jack biscuits powdered sugar or cinnamon Sugar

Heat enough oil in a frying pan, wok or electric skillet for frying. Poke a hole, or cut out a circle from each biscuit and toss it in the hot oil. While they are still warm, rolldonut in the sugar.

PEANUT BUTTER PLAY DOUGH

1 tablespoon peanut butter 1/2 teaspoon honey

1½ teaspoon powdered milk wheat chex

Mash ingredients (except wheat chex) together and form a ball. Roll in crushed wheat chex.

These are tasty and kids love smashing and smooshing the little bits of "dough".

Season crisp for apples

Michigan apple season is under way with the harvest of the Paula Red apple variety. Paula Red is the first major apple variety to be widely available at Michigan farm markets and roadside stands, as well as produce sections of grocery stores throughout the Midwest and Southern United States.

The majority of Michigan's Paula Red apples will be harvested through the month of August.

The Paula Red apple variety. similar to McIntosh in appearance, features a pleasingly tart flavor and light, creamy flesh, making it appealing for eating fresh and baking.

The first Paula Red apple tree was discovered accidentally by: Lewis Arends in his orchard near Sparta, Mich., and named after Mr. Arends' wife, Pauline. The variety has quickly grown in value to the state's apple industry, as. growers strive meet consumer den: mand for a summer apple variety.

The Paula Red harvest will be followed by the harvest of many other Michigan apple varieties in: cluding Gala, Spartan, McIntosh, Empire, Red Delicious, Rome, Cortland, Jonathan, Golden Delicious, Jonagold, Ida Red, Nonhem Spy, Crispin, and Winesap.

Link your cuffs in a savvy style

emember that big white shirt that you bought last fall? The one with the long pointy collar and the French cuffs? The crisp white cotton tunic-style shirt was the number one item on everyone's shopping list last year. But you probably didn't bother to shop for cuff links, because all of the fashion magazines showed those French cuffs hanging open beneath jacket sleeves, a starched whiteness completely covering the hand. (How did anyone eat with those dangling cuffs in the way?)

Well, this fall, retrieve that dress shirt from the closet or buy a newer, more fitted version in taffeta or silk charmeuse. It is an essential part of a three-piece menswear-inspired suit. And cinch those cuffs with a pair of eyecatching cuff links. The look this year is much more refined and those generic, initial-engraved goldtone cuff links or polished silver squares with a tiny rhinestone in the corner that every grandfather has tucked away in a little wooden jewelry box. I searched for some fun and fashionable decorative cuff links and found some definite winners.

Colonel Littleton refurbishes vintage cuff links in 10K gold, enamel and mother-of-pearl. The original designs, all from the '20s and '30s, are glamorous and classic without being boring. Look for his collection at Parisian, Laurel Park Place, Livonia ($70-$115).

Designer Nicole Miller, famous for her whimsical silk ties, reproduces her one-of-a-kind designs on vests, makeup cases, diaper bags, umbrellas and even cuff links. Her '95 sterling silver cuff links include lips, wineglasses, golf ball buckets, champagne glasses, champagne buckets and for the serious "suits," a bull and bear ($85).

Most of these playful cuff links are available at Michigan's only Nicole Miller boutique, Adamo at 268 West Maple in Birmingham. Miller's line also includes formal wear for wedding parties, women's separates and preteen party dresses. Her accessories are patterned in such colorful and artsy themes as Nabisco cookies, Barbie dolls, Kermit the Frog and seed packets for the gardener.

Occupational ties

Doctors, lawyers, golfers, hockey fans, stock brokers, wine collectors, dentists and auto enthusiasts will all find ties appropriate to their hobbies or careers. Miller creates 1,200 to 3,000 of each pattern and then retires the art, so her ties become collector's items. Coming soon to Adamo, the Christmas and New Years collector ties. All ties are $60.

Back to cuff links. Nelman Marcus at the Somerset Collection, Troy, devotes an entire case to the oft-ignored fashion accessory. Jewelry designers John Hardy and David Yurman craft sterling silver into elegant cuff links. Yurman's are banded in 14K gold in his signature Cable pattern (from $230).

Also notable are the white porcelain cuff links by Duchamp-London. Each in a pair is printed with the words Hot and Cold: Yes and No; or Thank You in about 10 different languages ($65). For real eye-popping fun, check out Nancy & Rise's eyeball cuff links, in the color of your choice. They should draw attention - at least to your wrists --- and they make great conversation pieces.

Home Depot opens 12 Michigan stores

Home Depot is credited with being an innovator in the home center retail industry for combining a warehouse format with a level of customer service unprecedented among warehouse-style retailers. Two stores open this

The Home Depot opens Michigan stores "10 and 11" on Aug. 31 - one at Webster and Southfield Rd. in Southfield, and the other in Grand Rapids on 28th St.

There is one additional store planned for the state, which is under construction in Saginaw. Each store includes a 28,000 square-foot greenhouse and garden center, for a total of 130,000 square feet of homerelated merchandise.

"We're especially pleased to be opening (these) stores in Michigan,' said Pedro Mendiguren, district manager. "We offer customers an enormous range of top-quality home improvement products . . . and a level of service they've never experienced before."

Home Depot provides an easy-toshop layout showcasing approximately 40-50,000 different kinds of building materials, home improvement supplies, interior design-products, and plants and accessories for the lawn and garden. These products are sold to do-it-yourselfers, as well as home improvement, construction and building maintenance professionals.

The Home Depot stores also offer free do-it-yourself clinics and a nation-wide bridal registry service.

The new stores feature a professionally staffed, centrally located, design center which offers free consulting for home improvement projects ranging from lighting to computer-assisted design for kitchens and bathrooms.

Each store will employ approximately 150 employees, and provide a significant tax and property revenue - approximately $2.3 million each in sales and property taxes annually, according to a company spokeswoman.

Founded in 1978, in Atlanta, GA, The Home Depot claims to be North America's largest home center retailer. It operates 372 warehousestyle home centers in 30 states, and 17 stores in three Canadian provinces. Gross sales for 1994 topped $12.4 billion. Stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "HD," and is included in the Standard and Poor's 500 Index. Home Depot expects to be operating approximately 850 stores by the end of fiscal 1998.

In March, Home Depot received a 'most-admired retailer" rating from Fortune Magazine, due in part to a $8 million philanthropic budget which is directed back to the communities Home Depot serves. Home Depot supports development of affordable housing and programs to benefit youth at risk.

Mendiguren said Home Depot expanded into Michigan last year because the states's demographica "are excellent. You have a good economy, a high percentage of ownership, and people who generally take great pride in improving their homes."

Competition for Michigan's home improvement dollars grows keen as other superstores such as Builders Square, Home Quarters, and Handy Andy (descendants of Forest City) open new stores and tout customer service.

James Purcell's couture designs echo the '60s

By Susan DeMaggio Staff Writer

Although he uses "the real couture fabric from Europe," to fashion his high-society creations, James Purcell insists he is a purveyor of "American couture.'

"Someday I'd like to produce true American luxury goods," he said wistfully backstage at the Concours d'Elegance in Rochester Hills where his fall collection was on parade. "Purses, gloves, shoes, the very top, made in this country for people who appreciate the design and workmanship that would be behind it."

Right now, however, Purcell and partner Barry Steinhart keep busy building their fashion house, which they describe as "a real New York retailer, our workroom."

through Saks Fifth Avenue, Neiman Marcus and Barneys New York. Purcell describes his clients as women at the top of their social community who want the best clothing available." These have included Candace Bergen, Hillary Clinton, Phylicia Rashad and local celebrities SuSu Sosnick and Elmore Leonard's wife, Christine.

Purcell's designs are handmade by a small staff of just 10 specialists, the owners included. They are sold

Purcell, 39, explained that his creations are inspired by looks from the '50s and '60s, when growing up in Indiana, he was surrounded by a very fashion-conscious mother and eight sisters. His father was vice-president of the gas and electric company.

"My mother was a big Marshall Field's customer and she wore wonderful clothes," he recalled. "She raised 11 of us, eight girls and three boys. I can't help but be influenced by the fashion silhouettes and designs that are a part of my memories. I've updated these for the '90s and found a ready audience who also fondly recall these designs but have no where else to buy them."

In 1989, Purcell left his job as marketing director of the Chicago Stock Exchange to begin designing women's. high fashion, a dream he held since his school days.

A year later, he linked up with Wall Street attorney Barry Steinhart to be-

Couture designs: James Purcell's clothing is all the rage among those who appreciate (and can afford) very fine garments.

The deli lovers have spoken! In response to Lisa Rigg of Livonia's request for good New York and/or Mediterranean-type delicatessens similar to "the Ann Arbor ones like Zingerman's and Amer's," we received the following reader responses:

"Send her to Maya's in downtown Plymouth, it's the best." "'Didn't you know Amer's opened a new location last year on

Maple in downtown Birmingham?" "The Bread Basket on Greenfield and Lincoln in Oak Park is the best deli in town, I travel 11 miles once a week to have lunch four-inches high." "At Five Mile and Farmington it's David's New York Deli for the best hot or cold sandwiches in town. Lots of office workers come over every day for lunch, so it must be good."

there. The corned beef is stacked

"The Pickle Barrel Deli is a delight. It's on 12 Mile and Evergreen in the Evergreen Plaza. It's been around forever."

Here's the next challenge, it seems a bit odd, but Janice Carriere of Livonia assures she's sincere in her search for "a beautiful boudoir chair that doubles as a potty."

"I know it was made years ago. but I need one today and I can't find one anywhere. I've called several medical supply companies with no luck. The one I have in mind was covered with fabric and no one would ever know it was also a potty. If any reader knows where I could purchase one, or knows someone who could build me one, I'd be most appreciative."

There you have it. If you know where Janice can find such a "chair," please give Malls & Mainstreets a call at (810) 901-2567. We'll print your responses! You can fax an answer to (810) 644-1314. Or write Where Can I Find, c/o The Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, 805 E. Maple, Birmingham, 48009. New shopping challenges are also welcome through these avenues. Thank you!

gin James Purcell Designs. Steinhart is a Michigan native who attended University Ligget in Grosse Pointe, class of 1977, and graduated from the University of Michigan Law School in the class of 1982. The pair financed the company themselves with help from friends and relatives. The first year, they made $600, but by 1994, sales had reached $1 mil-

"The post World War II years were the last great clothes years." Purcell said. "It was such a fantasv time in U.S. history. Camelot. Prosperity. Women didn't have to look sexy to feel they were attractive.'

Purcell's designs are pure, simple and clean, right in step with the current clamor for classics and elegant looks. But Purcell followers say he was one of the first to recall the American glamour

"James has a very special niche in the marketplace," said Cheryl Hall of Saks Fifth Avenue.

Hall worked with Purcell to produce the Concours show. "His silhouettes are very ladylike. The fabrics just incredible, the workmanship superb. It's what cou-buy fine clothes."

ture used to be. It's ashion of a level you don't see very much anymore.

When he wants to relax, Purcell said he heads for his beach house on Fire Island. But those times are few and far between. Mostly it's long, nose-to-the-grindstone days to produce three collections a year, fall/winter, spring/summer and holiday/resort.

One of his favorite designs for fall is a silk trapeze jacket with mother-of-pearl-buttons, "great over a slim skirt or silk capri pants." Retail price: $1,840. (You can pick up some daytime dresses or a cocktail dress for under $1,000.) But Purcell is quick to point out that the garments are made from couture fabric that begins at $200 a yard.

Town and Country magazine recently blessed Purcell with a cover story in which Phillip Miller, chairman and CEO of Saks Fifth Avenue paid him this compliment, "It takes courage for a young designer to cut from the finest French fabrics. James is well-grounded. He has a rare talent: He understands women who

Retail realities

Back to school is big business, according to the National Center for Education Statistics; kindergarten enrollment rose 7.2-percent to 3.6 million from 1988 to 1993. Preschool enrollment for the same period rose 14-percent to 2.9 million.

According to the May '95 issue of Earnshaw's (a leading trade publication for the children's wear industry) Detroit is ranked 41 in total retail apparel with $3.1 billion in sales for children.

A nationwide back-to-school survey conducted by Bruskin/ Goldring Research in July revealed: 65-percent of shoppers will spend more than $25 on an outfit for their child's first day of ford.

school, 33-percent will spend between $25-$49. 24 percent will spend between $50-$100.

Furthermore, 52-percent of those surveyed said they shop about a month before school begins, 40-percent said they begin shopping two weeks before, twopercent said they go shopping the day before school begins.

The most-shopped-for items for kids ages 2 to 10? Backpacks of course. Sixtytwo percent of shoppers report needing backpacks, 22 percent said athletic shoes, 7 percent said lunch boxes, 5 percent said jeans, and 4 percent said jackets.

Musical lineup spans the years

The 1995 version of the the Michigan State Fair boasts an outstanding array of talent, spanning the generations of musical history.

From country to soul to rock 'n roll, there will be something for everyone at this year's Fair. The following entertainers will be performing in the Fairgrounds band shell, located near the southwest entrance of the Fairgrounds.

All concerts are free with paid attendance to the fair. Because all seating is handled in general admission style, it is suggested that concert-goers plan on arriving early for their favorite performances.

Tuesday, Aug. 29 — Boyz II Men:

Boyz II Men — Philadelphia born and bred, Boyz II Men catapulted into pop music superstardom after the release of their first album.

They were faced with a difficult dilemma: How to follow up that album which sold 7 million copies, and won the group two Grammys, three American Music Awards, two Soul Train Awards, two NAACP Image Awards, two MTV Awards and one World Music award.

The "boyz" have outdone themselves with the release of their second album, simply titled "II". They'll be setting the summer night on fire at this year's Fair with all of their most popular hits including "I'll Make Love to You," "End of the Road", and "Motownphilly."

Wednesday, Aug. 30 -Shenandoah.

■ Shenandoah — The Academy of Country Music's 1991 Vocal Group of the year, the four man Muscle Shoalls-based band has been a radio and fan favorite since arriving on the country music Tucker. scene in 1987.

Shenandoah is coming off of one of their most successful years as a recording act. Their newest release "In the Vicinity of the Heart" hit stores in mid-November, and their first single from the album went to the Top 10 of the. country charts.

Thursday, August 31 — Pattv Loveless. Patty Loveless — If there is anything that sets hard country torch singer Patty Loveless apart, it's that commitment to conecting with people's moments of doubt, loss and exhilaration. Patty has staked her claim as the woman. willing to turn her heart inside out to touch people. Her performance will be an unforgettable addition to this year's Michigan State Fair entertainment line-up.

Friday, September 1 — To Be Announced.

Saturday, Sept. 2 - Nell McCoy.

■ Neal McCoy — Neal McCoy is a long-legged Texas jackrabbit who is very happy and very much at home in today's country music briar patch. Why? Two reasons his 1994 album "No Doubt About It" and his January 1995 followup "You Gotta Have That!"

Fans can expect to see a spontaneous show with the addition of both new songs and hits. In front of a crowd, Neal connects instantly, no holding back — so join his audience in song and laughter this year at the Fair!

Sunday, September 3 -Chuck Berry & Little Richard -That old time rock 'n roll.

■ Chuck Berry and Little Richard — If any one individual can be credited as the premier figure of rock and roll, it's Chuck Berry. And according to People magazzine, "there could not have been a Michael Jackson if there had not been a Little Richard."

Well, good golly. Miss Molly! Believe it or not, these two trailblazers of modern rock will take the stage together for a night of electrically charged, rock and roll boogie that will have you up and moving in the aisles.

Monday, Sept. 4 - Tanya

■ Tanya Tucker — Back, by popular demand! One of the reigning queens of country music, she needs no introduction, nor explanation. She is Tanya Tucker, and last year, she brought down the house, sun, moon and stars in one of the most memorable performances the Fair's band shell has ever seen. You have to see her to believe her. And even then, you might not believe your eyes.

Has your Mom had a mammogram?

The risk of breast cancer increases with age. It is one of the leading causes of death among women 65 and older. Early detection through regular mammograms could prevent many of these deaths. Yet as women get older, they are less likely to get mammograms. Has your Mom had a mammogram? If not, encourage her to get one It might be your chance to give her good advice.

Finesse state champs

inesse rallied from a 10-3 fifth-inning deficit to edge Clinton Valley, 11-10, and win the nine-team U.S. Slo-pitch Softball Association 14-under state tournament last month at Liberty Park in Sterling Heights.

Tiffany Bako went 4-for-4 and scored three runs to help spur the comeback. Other hitting heroes include Jenell Cobor, who went 3-for-4 and scored three runs, and Ashley Julien, who added three hits and three RBI.

Relief pitcher Jillian Minjor, who came on in the fourth inning and closed the door on Clinton Valley, got credit for the win.

Finesse, 27-14 overall, also defeated the Inter-Lakes Flames, 29-5; Michigan Trailblazers, 12-7; and Clinton Valley in the semifinals, 12-2.

Rockets refueled for '95 season

■ Westland John Glenn will once again be a contender in the Lakes Division of the WLAA. The Rockets are seeking their eighth playoff berth since 1985.

BY BRAD EMONS

It's nothing new. 's not a revelation. Westland John Glenn High's football team will be a contender again this Lakes Activities Association. The Rockets, 136-42 in 18 years under coach Chuck Gordon, are also seeking their eighth-post-season playoff berth since 1985.

Last season, the underdog Rockets came within a minute of reaching the state Class AA finals at the Pontiac Silverdome, After an 0-2 start in 1994, Glenn regrouped and finished with an 8-2 record, capped by a heartbreaking 13-12 semifinal loss to Bay City Central.

After the Rockets' strong finish, many believe there will be a carryover from the end of last season. Many coaches have them pegged as the hands-down favorite to win the Lakes Division of the WLAA, but Gordon isn't buying that.

"Our division is very balanced; it's wide open," he said. "People forget we were involved in a lot of close (division) games last year."

The Rockets are preparing for Friday's home lift-off against Howell, but they'll be without All-Area tailback Brent Washington, who gained 1,400-plus yards. He is now a freshman cornerback at the University of Michigan.

Offensively, we had a big, fast tailback in Brent (Washington) who we really really featured," Gordon said. "This year we're going to have to play a different style. We'll throw more and I think we're capable of doing it."

Also lost was All-Area defensive back/quarterback James Hagelthorn, along with 290-pound All-Observer offensive tackle Ron Schoenheide (now at Michigan Tech). Secondteamers Jim Lock and Phil Graca, a pair of offensive lineman, also gradu-

There are lots of new faces in the Livonia Stevenson High football program, starting with the new head coach, 27-year-old Tim Gabel.

PREVIEW

Gone is the only varsity coach in school history - Jack Reardon who spent the past 30 years with the Spartans.

Also lost off last year's 8-3 Class AA playoff team are first-team All-Area picks Mike Redington, Craig Martin, Tony Jankowski, Dave Ross and Scott Goldman.

Second-team All-Observer picks Eric Hine, Jim Townsend and Chris Mullett were also lost to graduation.

Actually, Gabel is not new to the program. He served as Reardon's assistant coach the past four years. And the new coaching philosophy may only include a few subtle changes. "Offensively we'll still run a lot of counters (plays)," Gabel said, "When it adds up, it looks a lot like what

"He (Reardon) is the starting point and that thread still runs through everything we do.

"The only thing that is different is some of the terminology with our plays. That may change.

Despite all the losses, Gabel still has a strong nucleus intact entering Friday's season opener at Redford

Quarterback Dean Bacheller, a 6foot-2, 180-pound senior, returns after starting several games last year, Glenn returnee: Jay Jackson (left), who split time last year between tailback and wide receiver, will be carrying the ball fulltime for the Rockets.

Jay Jackson, a 5-foot-5, 150-pound senior who gained over 100 yards in a 30-0 season-opening loss last season to Howell, returns at tailback. He was switched to wide receiver in 1994 after Washington came back from an earlyseason knee injury.

"Jay has good quickness," Gordon said. "Some people may be deceived by his size, but he runs hard and will take it up in there.

Jackson will get help in the backfield from junior Matt Griglio (5-11, experience." Griglio earned second-team All-Observer honors last year as a linebacker.

'We've got to take some pressure Cruz (5-7, 130). off the tailback position, we can't expect the tailback to carry the ball 30 times per game," Gordon said. "We have to be more balanced than a year ago."

The fullback will be senior Jason Baker (5-10, 170), a pure athlete who is also a diver on the swim team, a 6-2 high jumper and 12-foot pole vaulter on the track team.

The question mark, however, comes at quarterback.

Gordon used Thursday's scrimmage against Dearborn Heights Crestwood to decide on whether senior lan Wade (5-9, 155) or sophomore Justin Berent (6-4, 185) would replace Hagelthorn.

"Our quarterbacks both had good camps," Gordon said. "Both can throw and have confidence in their receivers."

Gordon will use four different 200), whom Gordon said "has a ton of Carter (6-1, 152), a transfer from (punting). Livonia Churchill; junior Paul Merandi (5-10, 150), senior Anthony Greco (6.0, 178) and junior Kevin ing camp.

> Junior John Becher (6-3, 212), who gained playoff experience as a 10th grader, will play the tight end spot along with senior Steve Rusnock (5-11, 190).

The offensive line returns tackle Mike Sosnowski (6-1, 235), who started all 12 games last year. The center the attitude. The work ethic has been is Jeff Cook (5-10, 220), also starter a

WESTLAND JOHN GLENN'S 1995 FOOTBALL SCHEDULE (all games at 7:30 p.m. unless noted)

September: 1, Howell; 8, at Walled Lake Western; 15, Plymouth Salem; 23, at North Farmington (1 p.m.); 29, at Walled Lake Central.

October: 6, Farmington; 13, at Livonia Stevenson; 20, Western Lakes crossover; 27, at Wayne Memorial.

Jachym (6-0, 255) and Bryan Schwesing (5-11, 190). Senior Jim Tudgay (6-1, 275), injured last season, will play the other tackle slot.

"The offensive line is a hard-working group," Gordon said. "We think they will develop into a good line. They just need experience.'

Glenn, using a 5-2 alignment defensively, returns four starters. They include Cook at tackle, senior defensive end Keith King (6-2, 200), along with Griglio and Sosnowski at linebacker. "Having them back has helped the progress of that unit," Gordon said. "We have guys who are battle-tested. If the others come along, we have a good chance to become a good de-

Penciled in to start at nose guard is senior Matt Massey (5-9, 190), while senior Terry Ringholz (5-11, 185) holds down the other end position. All four defensive backs are new including senior Jeff Henry (5-7, 168), senior Bernie Toby (5-9, 140), junior Todd Viecelli (5-8, 170) and Jackson. The kicking duties will be handled by Cook (kickoffs), junior Steve Palreceivers including senior Mark ing (kickoffs/extra points) and Baker

Gordon, meanwhile, is satisfied with the team's progress during train-

Clark, a slimmed-down 5-8, 193pound junior running back, is closing in on 1,000 yards for his career. "Gade's in the best shape of his career and he's coming in now with his peers," Gabel said, "He's in a leadership role and he's matured. He wants to he a good football player.'

Junior Kurt Bearer (5.7, 153), up from the JV, will also see time at running back. The fullbacks are new --junior Mike Allison (5-9, 179) and Dearborn Divine Child transfer Rudy Pacheco (5-9, 201)

The slotback position, according to Gabel, is a battle between holdover Todd Avres (5-10, 200), who played fullback a year ago, and junior Ken Kulisz (5-11, 172).

At wide receiver, senior tri-captain "He's a drop-back type, a solid Tom DuMont (6.0, 175) and senior football two years ago.

DuMont, meanwhile, is a returning starter in the defensive secondary.

"Tom's really worked hard and was thinking football all during the offseason," Gabel said. "He's much stronger and quicker. He has one speed -- high --- he just flies around the field."

Two seniors, Rob Drolet (6-0, 188) and Dan Danahy (5-11, 174), will fill the tight end spot.

The offensive line was riddled by graduation, but three-year varsity performer Eric Curl, a 6-3, 246-pound senior, is the anchor.

Curl, another team captain, is moving from center to tackle.

'With all the big kids we had there during the past. Eric was just another oak in the forest," Gabel said. "But now it's his show. He kept focused during the off-season and we expect hig things from him. He has stepped up his play every year and we expect good things from him as a senior."

Curl is also an excellent long snapper.

"He's very good at what he does and could make a career just out of that," Gabel added.

Senior Kevin Rosinski (6-0, 214), who played tight end last year, moves into the left guard slot. Senior Chris Arsenault (6.0, 182), who saw considerable action a year ago on defense, will move into Curl's spot at center.

Gabel said the right guard position is up for grabs between senior Matt Bartlett (5-6, 191) and junior Ehren Kuespert (6-1, 203). The left tackle spot will be manned by holdover George Murphy (6.5,

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Top 4 in Western Lakes tough to crack

BY BRAD EMONS STAFF WRITER

Who's tough in Observerland girls basketball?

Look no further than the Western Lakes Activities Association where four teams should slug it out for the title.

Walled Lake Central, the defending WLAA champ, has a host of starters back and a new coach. Steve Emert, who is noted for his trapping and pressing style of play, comes over from the boys program to replace the retired Ken Butler.

State Class A semifinalist Plymouth Canton, meanwhile, led by first-team All-Area center Sarah Warnke, will be formidable again.

And the team that had perhaps enjoyed the best summer, Plymouth Salem, could make a strong run. The Rocks, coached by Fred Thomann, have a pair of standouts back in sophomore Amanda Abraham and senior center Shelve Sills.

Northville could also be a bear with the return of senior guard Samantha Leger, sophomore forward Lauren Metaj and junior orward Gina Chaisson.

"That should be quite the league," said Livonia Ladywood coach Lisa McPhee, who saw enough of the WLAA's elite this summer to voice a strong opinion. "Salem was especially tough. They smashed us and looked like they were in mid-season form."

That leaves the WLAA's other eight teams scrambling for the final four playoff berths.

Who belongs in the next group is anybody's guess.

Livonia Franklin (12-11) will rely on two seniors, guard Tracy Rynkiewicz and forward/center Kellie Main, along with junior transfer Randi Wolfe and sophomore guard Julie Warner. The Patriots also have new leadership on the bench in Gary Warner, who is replacing Mary Jarvis.

Westland John Glenn (7-14) is also undergoing change.

JV coach Andy Denison has been elevated to the varsity post for the Rockets this season.

At Livonia Stevenson (12-11). coach Wayne Henry's team won a district in 1994, but lost its top player in Jill Van Tiem.

The Spartans' coach is hoping senior center Stacey Nichols will regain her sophomore form after suffering through ankle problems last season.

Livonia Churchill (2-19) returns three starters — Jessie Jenkins, Alicia December and Kathy Stein - and could fight for a playoff spot.

In the Mega Conference's Red Division, Garden City returns a slew of veterans from last year's Class A district championship team including Jamie guard Jamie Faber and forward Christie Glover.

Wayne Memorial (9-11) could make noise in the Mega-Red, led by the one-two punch of junior transfer Yolanda Holt, who perhaps is one of the area's most talented, and junior Rica Barge. Coach Chuck Henry, who led the Wayne boys to a state Class A quarterfinal berth last spring, is confident his girls will be vastly improved.

In the Catholic League's tough Central Division, defending Class C state champion Redford Bishop Borgess, led by Miss Basketball candidate Maxann Reese and first-team All-Area guard Adrienne Bryant, should fight it out with Harper Woods Regina for first place.

Livonia Ladywood (9-10) may fall into the next grouping along with defending state Class B champ Dearborn Divine Child, Birmingham Marian and Farmington Hills Mercy. Four of the five Central Division teams make coach McPhee, return two starters - 5-foot-10 senior center Kathy Dankert and 5.9 senior forward Erin LeSage.

In the Metro Conference. Observerland Coach of the Year Ron Gentz, who led the Warriors to a 19-3 record and a co-championship with Macomb Lutheran North, must replace several players including All-Conference picks Lauren Horton and Amy Guards Jenny Twietmeyer and Katie Ollinger give the Warriors some experience in the backcourt.

"(Macomb) North graduated a lot like us," Gentz said. "But they're still a team to be reckoned with. Lutheran Northwest (Rochester Hills) is the most improved. They had a good junior corps and a good JV team.

"Our JV team was 9-9, and we hope we can hang in there with the top three or four teams."

Coach Bob Wolf of Livonia Clarenceville (1-19) lost his two top inside players in Wendy Roy and Pam Inzano. The Trojans are definitely in the rebuilding phase,

The other area team is Westland Huron Valley Lutheran (4-16), coached by Tod Bartholomew. It appears the Hawks are also a ways away from contending in the Michigan Independent Athletic Conference.

Lady Crusaders optimistic about 1995 season

By C.J. RISAK STAFF WRITER

What Jerry Abraham doesn't want is a repeat.

Last season wasn't all that dismal for Madonna University's volleyball team, mind you. But it could have been better.

Going into the season, their biggest concern was replucing setter Mazie Pi-Abraham lut, who had graduated. That changed by mid-sea-

Madonna finished 30-21 last year, seeing its season end in the NAIA Great Lakes Regional semifinals. It was far short of expectations, which were high after the Crusaders' fifth-place finish in the '93 NAIA National Tournament.

As Abraham said after the season-ending loss to Mount St. Joseph's (Cincinnati), "It's been an inconsistent year for us."

Even though the losses seem. greater this year - gone are third-team NAIA All-American should change this year. The Mo Paulin and starting outside: hitter Julie Wood, both graduated, and Marci Laurencelle, Kate Dunning and Laura Fisher, who opted not to return — optimism is high.

The reason, at least in part, is the sobering effect a season that comes up short. "We do have experience in critical areas," said Abraham, who has a 309-117 record in his eight years as coach.

That experience starts with juniors Julie Martin, 6-foot-2 from Livonia Stevenson, and Kelly McCausland, 5-11 from Redford Union. Both are entering their third year as starters for Madonna; they will anchor the middle-hitter position.

"Martin and McCausland are two of the best players in the country," said Abraham simply, "Both are All-American prospects."

Unfortunately, they were two of the reasons Madonna struggled last year — or, rather, the injuries they suffered were. At times, the Crusaders were without five starters last year.

With some better luck, that team's only senior is 5-10 middlehitter Tiffaney Joseph.

Outside hitters Paulin and Wood, and setter Fisher, must be replaced. Meg Paris, who started at Ferris State before transferring to Mott Community College, will fill the void at setter. First, however, Paris must overcome a leg injury that sidelined her late last season, Heather Steinhelper, a 5-10 junior, and 5-10 Erin Comment and 5-8 Erin Gregoire, both sophomores, all gained valuable experience last season, but only Gregoire survived without injury.

Vicki Toth, a 5-10 sophomore from Redford Union, will serve as back-up setter, and Emily Marlow, a 5-11 redshirt freshman, will add depth at middle-hitter.

Which leads to Abraham's promising recruiting class: 5-10 outside hitter Karen Sisung, one of the best players in Class B last year; 6.0 middle-hitter Jaclyn Deane (Livonia Franklin), whose size and strength makes her extremely promising ("She's a terminating-type of hitter"); and Jennifer Russell, a 5-8 outside hitter and defensive specialist.

"We have a lot of new faces in spots," said Abraham. "Our outside hitters are brand new, and

Are there some bowlers in Observeriand looking for any new leagues to howl in this season?

There are some very interesting league situations in many of the local bowling centers where a few more good people are needed to fill in the teams. There happens to be quite a variety to choose from — mixed leagues, which bowl every other week and a few non-smokers leagues. Many openings are available for daytime ladies. And remember, many of the houses have free baby sitting for daytimers.

If you are not sure whether or Tonight the not to join a particular league, you can always offer to come in as a sub, And after a season of filling in, you would have a pretty good idea of whether or not to join next year. A list of some of the leagues that do have openings for more bowlers follows. It is only a partial list, there are many other leagues that can find a spot for

"We have a lot of underclassmen who will see a lot of playing time," Gabel said. "But there's a big difference between JV and varsity football. In varsity football, technique is now what matters. Last year we had so many kids back it was just a matter of executing and playing.

"Right now we have to begin to execute offensively and defensively without thinking. It comes down to game experience. We have some seniors and some quality juniors who are battling for positions."

And that's coming from the old kid on the block.

Shamrocks eye berth in Class AA playoffs

By Steve Kowalski Staff Writer

The Coaches Room at Redford Catholic Central, typically the place where coach Tom Mach prefers to talk football, wasn't conducive to an interview after classes Friday afternoon.

Students and coaches were coming and going and the school band could be heard through the courtyard windows, practicing for Saturday's season opener.

So Mach called an audible, suggesting to move the interview to another room. He walked into the crowded hallway and pointed to the nearest door.

"Let's go in the weight room, there's no one in there," Mach said.

Hard to believe.

It must be football season, because this room is rarely empty in the off-season.

The Shamrocks were especially persistent the past eight months, because a 6-3 record is unheard of with this football power.

The Shamrocks failed to make the state playoffs for the second year in a row, and the last time that happened was 1984. CC has won three state championships, including the Class AA titles in 1990 and '92, and are one of the favorites in AA this season.

Optimism is high because the seniors on this year's team were undefeated on the freshman and junior varsity teams.

Before that, a bunch won Catholic Youth Organization titles ei"We demand a lot, that's why

From January on, the weight room is open three days a week for the football players. The program is accelerated in the dead of winter with a week called "March Madness.'

Players arrive at school more than an hour early, and are to be in front of their weight lifting station by 6:29 a.m. The gym also is used for running drills.

One of Mach's friends in coaching, Monroe head coach Ralph Carducci, is starting a similar program at his school.

Program,' they learn the idea of sacrificing for the team," Mach said. If you plan on being late, don't show, says the Shamrocks' strongest lifter, senior two-way standout John Spolsky (6-foot, 235 pounds).

"You don't really like it when you're doing it, but at least all your friends are there doing it 180). with you," Spolsky said. "Then Sta it's all over and we go to school, but not to fall asleep in class. We're doing it to get better, not to make excuses for the rest of the day."

The Shamrocks have 29 players who weigh at least 200 pounds and on the offensive line CC averages 239 pounds.

Spolsky bench presses a mindboggling 405 pounds. Spolsky was a first-team All-Observer choice on defense last year as a linebacker. He's the area's best fullback and will move to nose guard on "It makes me feel good when he gets the ball — he runs like a full-back should," Mach said.

The Shamrocks' quarterback is junior Greg Call, who may be the team's best athlete. The lefthander's favorite target will be senior tight end Eric Gilbo (6-7, 250), who caught four passes last Gilbo has the best hands and the team's best arm - he's a former quarterback. The wide receiving corps also includes seniors Joel Rioux (5-7, 160), Steve Mondry (6-0, 185), Tom Valenti (6-0, 180) and Mike Ambroziak (5-11,

"Gilbo catches very well, he has hands of glue," Mach said.

The backfield features junior tailback Greg Alcala (5-7, 170), a shifty runner who played on the junior varsity last year. Also spending time at tailback will be senior returnee Kevin Quay (6-0, Starting on the offensive line are senior tackles Matt Byl (6-2, 266) and Nick Lachapelle (6-1, 270), senior guards Mike Smiley (6.0, 210) and Jeff Monnette (6.2, 220) and senior center James McFarlane (6-2, 215).

On the defensive

Mike Smiley and senior Chuck O'Connor (6.1, 190) anchor the defensive line as ends. Lachapelle and senior Bryan Jeffords (6-0, 205) are the tackles on either side of Spolsky.

The inside linebackers are senior Tom Smiley (6-0, 203) and junior Milam Brooks (5-11, 205).

Starting cornerback Jason Marzec (5-9, 160) has a knee injury and is out four weeks. His replacement, sophomore Kevin Thomas (5.11, 180) came out of the four-way scrimmage with a head injury, but should be ready for the season opener.

Valenti has secured one cornerback spot, while senior Juday May (5-11, 170) returns at strong safety and junior Nick Mastroionni (5-11, 170) is filling the free safety position.

Churchill wins pair of tournaments

Livonia Churchill coach Kirk Osler has good vibes about his 1995 boys golf team.

And his Chargers did little to disprove that by winning the Plymouth Best Ball Tournament on Thursday at Brae Burn, followed by the Pinckney Invitational on Friday at Rush Lake.

'We have the same seniors who have been here since their freshman year," Osler said. "It's a close-knit group of kids and they fourth, respectively. think it's their time.

"Their maturity is starting to show. The time to do it is this year, and they feel they're going to do it."

On Friday, Churchill outscored total of 302. Redford Catholic Central was second with 305.

Churchill was led by medalist Gary Kraus, a junior, who carded

Seniors Dan Higham and Chris Kiehler shot 75 and 76, respectively. Senior Leon Kashawlic 20 other teams with a four-player contributed a 78. Mike Cotter added an 84.

On Thursday, Churchill's Lansing Sexton and Hartland Kiehler and Kashawlic combined shot 313 and 314 for third and for a best-ball total of 69, while

Family discovers 'Magic in the Water' on vacation

Ashley and Josh's vacation with Dad is starting out to be a real bust.

He's divorced from Mom, and he's been too busy to see much of them, but this vacation at the lake, just the three of them, was going to be Ashley and Josh's chance to catch up on all the times they've missed being with their father. The trouble is, they themselves: Dad stays in the cabin all day long working on his book and doesn't want them to bother him.

Dr. Jack Black doesn't know how much he's disappointed his children. In fact, even though he's a smart, hip psychiatrist who dispenses hard-nosed advice on the radio, he doesn't know a lot of things that are self-evident to kids. He's forgotten what it feels like to be a child, to yearn for your dad's attention, to lose yourself in play, to believe in things that can't be seen.

Ashley, however, is 10 years old, so she is able to grasp something might as well be at the lake by that her dad, and even her teenage brother can't: that just outside their cabin, in the late that laps at the shore — there's magic.

> A family adventure, "Magic in the Water" stars Mark Harmon as Jack; Harley Jane Kozak as Dr. Wanda Bell, the town's psychiatrist; Joshua Jackson as Josh; and Sarah Wayne as Ashley.

Rick Stevenson makes his film directing debut with "Magic in the Water," which he produces with Matthew O'Connor.

In the sleepy, close-knit lakeside community of Glenorky, a handful of rather peculiar men are being treated by psychiatrist Wanda Bell (Harley Jane Kozak). Although they have difficulty admitting it, they are all convinced that they have been inhabited by Orky, a monster who, legend has it, lives in the lake.

Of course, it's all highly improbable, as is the fact that the newest member of the group is Jack Black! In the few days he's been at the lake, Jack has experienced a complete turnaround in his cynical, workaholic life. Ever since his own close encounter with Orky - which he thinks was just a concussion-induced dream - he's discovered the joy of playing with his kids, of digging tunnels to China, of turning clouds into pictures in the sky.

Unlike Dr. Bell, Ashley knows that her dad and the other patients are not suffering from some unexplainable group psychosis. They are telling the truth. There is a creature in the lake, a gentle creature who shares Ashley's love the little girl's help, will die.

"Orky senses that Ashley is lonely and needs a friend, while Ashley understands that Orky is sick and that she must help him," said director, co-writer and producer Rick Stevenson. "In a way," Ashley, like many other children in her predicament, is the ultimate survivor. Who better can help a creature on the brink of extinction?"

For Stevenson, "Magic in the Water" is the culmination of

"I was always fascinated with the legend of the Loch Ness Monster and later learned that scientists actually have propounded a theory on lake monsters of the 50th parallel.

Offbeat projects highlight most anticipated fall movies

Pierce Brosnan is supposed to resurrect the James Bond franchise this fall. Big deal, What really excites me about the upcoming releases are the kooky concepts that filmmakers have been able to

"Four Rooms." Quentin Tarantino and director pals Robert Rodriguez ("Desperado"), Allison Anders ("Gas Food Lodging"), and Alexandre Rockwell ("In the Soup") join for this four-part anthology set on one very eventful New Year's Eve in a Hollywood hotel. Tim Roth plays a bellboy who ties the segments together. (October)

"Casino." Director Martin Scorsese teams again with Robert DeNiro in this highly anticipated underworld story set in Las Vegas. The story is based on a real-life gambler whose luck ran dry when he opened his own casino. Sharon Stone co-stars. (November) "Arizona Dream." Strange as it sounds, I've never met a Johnny ber that these picks are from the Depp movie I didn't like. So imsame reviewer whose favorite agine him teamed with Jerry Lew-heavy doses of goofiness and magical realism. Considered unreleasable when completed in 1993, it has enjoyed a healthy revival at art theaters, making a stop at the Detroit Film Theatre Sept. 29 to Oct. 1. "Clockers." Martin Scorsese, as producer, hands the director's reins over to Spike Lee. Richard Price has adapted his own novel about the inner-city drug trade, and though he gets my vote as Hollywood's most overrated (and overpaid) scribbler, everyone is raving about Delroy Lindo's performance as a wily drug dealer. (September)

"Mall Rats." Kevin Smith advances from his $23,000 directorial debut in "Clerks" to this $3 million take on life at the neighborhood shopping mall. Smith, who played Silent Bob in "Clerks," appears again, but it's really bad girl Shannen Daugherty's role that has everyone guessing. (October)

To Wong Foo, Thanks for Everything! Julie Newmar." What a title. What a concept. Wesley Snipes, John Leguizamo and Patrick Swayze don their party clothes as drag queens headed from New York to L.A. in this decidedly offbeat comedy. With the ever-idiosyncratic Beebon Kidron ("Used People") at the helm, this one could go either way. (Septem-

"Mighty Aphrodite." As usual, Woody Allen is being secretive about his latest project. All we know at this point is it's about marriage and stars Allen, Helena Bonham Carter, and Michael Rapaport.(October)

Fall release: "Dead Presidents," The title means money in this new film due out in October from the Detroit-raised Hughes Brothers. Anthony Curtis (Larenz Tate, center right, in white face) has returned from serving in Vietnam with his life in a shambles. Unable to find work, he and his fellow veterans decide to commit an armored car robbery.

means money in this new film from the Detroit-raised Hughes Brothers, who set the gangster genre on its ear with their brutal "Menace II Society." Expect plenty of violence in the story of a Vietnam Vet who robs an armored car. (October)

"Broken Arrow." Hong Kong action director John Woo appears to be having the same problems at the front office that plagued his American debut, "Hard Target." Still this could be the one where Woo (who made "The Killer" and "Hardboiled" unhindered in his native country) shows Hollywood how to handle firearms. John Travolta and Christian Slater play pilots who swipe a nuclear warhead and try to hold the country hostage. (December)

"Dead Presidents." The title "Blue in the Face." In the style of Reger Corman, director Wayne Moore and starring the late John Wang finished shooting his kept the cast and crew around to put an extra movie in the can. Here Madonna, Michael J. Fox. Lily Tomlin, and Roseanne walk through the doors of Harvey Keitel's Brooklyn tobacco shop. (September)

Not without interest: Brad Pitt and Morgan Freeman hunt a serial killer in "Seven;" The United States declares war on our northern neighbors in "Canadian Bacon," directed by Michael Candy; and "From Dusk Till "Smoke" a few days early, so he Dawn," a dark comedy about Mexican vampires penned by the ubiquitous Quentin Tarantino and directed by "Desperado's" Robert Rodriguez.

Lit should come as no Surprise that Chrysler's newest cars, the Dodge Stratus and Chrysler Tirrus, are named after clouds, especially since The carmaker expects sky-high sales.

The cars have replaced replace the Chrysler BeBaron, Dodge Spirit and Plymouth Acclaim in the Chrysler lineup.

The Cirrus and Stratus were Chrysler's best-kept secret before their intro-Muction. No journalist, photographer or even renowned spy photographer Jim Dunne could capture the Cirrus or Stratus on film before their Detroit debut.

Chrysler sent out cassette tapes that featured the "Mission Impossible"

Writing a classified ad that gets results—whether it be for real estate, employment, the personals, transportation, or merchandise— is easy if you follow

1. Give the reader specific Information. Pretend you are someone reading the classifieds. What would you like to know about the Item, service or Job you are advertising? Be sure to add details such as color, size, condition, brand name, age, features and benefits. Be accurate! Don't embelish your ad with misleading information. $tick to the facts and reap the rewards!

2. Include the price. Don't waste your time or a potential buyer's time. If you advertise the price of the Item or service you offer, the people who respond to your ad will be those who are genuinely interested. Surveys show that readers are more interested in those items and services they know are within their price range.

3. Avoid abbreviations. Don't make a potential customer work too hard! Although you may be tempted to cut down on the cost of your ad by using abbreviations, surveys indicate that many people don't understand such abbreviations as EIK (eat-In kitchen) or WSW (white side wall) tires and won't take the time to floure them. out. A confused reader is a disinterested reader. Get the most for your money and use complete words.

4. Include phone number and specify hours. Be sure to let potential customers know when and where to call. Surveys show that even if a person is very interested in your item or service, he or she will not call back after the first attempt; Stay near the phone during the hours you indicate you will be available. Don't risk missing a

5. Run on consecutive days. Your ad will not get results if people don't see it! Therefore, it is important to set up a consistent and consecutive ad schedule with your telephone salesperson or outside sales representative.
