2 sides clash in efforts to open charter school

BY DARRELL CLEM STATE WRITTE

A charter school group has made two new offers for buildings in the Wayne-Westland public school district, as tensions escalate between the two sides.

Lashing out at charter school organizers, Wayne-Westland school board President Francis "Bud" Winter said the group shouldn't blame public school officials for its own failures.

"They blame us for their situation when they can't get off the ground," he said last week during a school board meeting.

Winter was referring to the Monroe Developmental Academy's failure to open as planned on Sept. 22 at the former Titus Elementary School, owned by the Wayne-Westland district on Henry Ruff south of Cherry Hill.

Investors withdrew their financial support because they feared the Titus site might be contaminated. Charter school organizers say they didn't have time to complete an environmental study before the deadline for withdrawing from the purchase agreement.

Chuck Stockwell, a former Wayne-Westland principal who is the charter school's executive director, said it appears that school officials want to block the project. They weren't very cooperative on extending the agreement, he said.

Winter said a five-day extension was granted and that charter school organizers have themselves to blame for the collapse of the agreement.

Winter indicated strongly during the board meeting that board members aren't interested in the new offers from the charter school

Stockwell said an offer has been made for a three-year lease at Titus, at $100,000 a year. The group would agree to buy the building for $550,000 when the lease expires.

That's $60,000 more than the original $490,000 purchase agreement that fell through.

In a separate offer, charter school organizers have offered to lease the former Monroe Elementary School for three years, at $50,000 a year. The group would huy the school for $300,000 at the end of the lease, Stockwell said.

Stockwell is the former principal of Monroe, which closed along with Titus and two other Wayne-Westland elementaries last school year. Elementary enrollment declined as the district moved sixth-graders to middle schools.

Last week, Winter said, "We're not going to lease any property."

Stockwell noted that the district has successfully leased other property, such as the former Cherry Hill alternative school, on Avondale between Inkster Road and Middlebelt, and the former Wilson Elementary School, on Wildwood north of Palmer.

"All of a sudden we're going to change the rules," he said.

Stockwell was criticized by Winter for failing to communicate with board members about the charter school.

Stockwell responded by saying that he has followed procedure by working with the district's administration. He said he kept immediate past Superintendent Larry Thomas abreast as the charter school concept blossomed.

Stockwell also said Realtors and attorneys for the charter school have been in frequent contact with administration officials.

Stockwell said he believes that some school board members have aimed all along to stop the charter school.

"If they really wanted to work with us, these are really good offers," he said, referring to the latest Monroe and Titus offers.

For every student who switched from the Wayne-Westland district to the charter school, $5,500 in state aid would follow.

Stockwell said he has previous. ly offered to make charter school presentations to the school board. but that he was turned down by the administration.

Trial order pleases victim's fiancee

By Darrell Clem

The Westland fiancee of Dale Farr, a 23-year-old Wayne Memorial High graduate who was slain Aug. 25 in Inkster, said she is relieved that her boyfriend's accused killer has been ordered to stand trial.

"I'm hanging in there because of Dale," 21-year-old Dawn Marie Manier said Friday.

Manier lived with Farr in Canton Township before his death. They were supposed to be married this coming Saturday.

On Wednesday, Manier was in court when a 15-year-old Inkster boy was ordered by Inkster District Judge Sylvia James to stand trial for Farr's shooting death.

"I'll be in court every day," Manier said. "I want to make sure this kid pays. I want him to have to look me in the face."

Roger Dunn, who has been charged as an adult, was ordered to stand trial following a preliminary hearing in Inkster 22nd District Court.

Farr was shot in the back Aug. 25 after he and his younger brother, James, clashed with three teens who wanted to sell drugs to them on Middlebelt Road in Inkster.

The Farrs refused the offer and drove off in their car, but one of the teens threw a stick and hit the vehicle, prompting the brothers to pull off of the road and confront the assailants, Inkster police Detective Greg Hill has said.

A larger crowd closed in, and the Farr brothers began fleeing when Dunn allegedly opened fire with a 38-caliber handgun and shot Dale Farr in the back, police have said. He also is accused of trying to kill James Farr.

Dunn faces trial on charges of first-degree murder, assault with intent to murder and felony firearms possession. He could face life in prison if convicted.

Manier and Fart were high school sweethearts who planned to marry Saturday and go on a honeymoon to Walt Disney World. Instead, Farr was buried with his wedding ring.

The couple, both graduates of Wayne Memorial High, had lived together in Canton Township for 31/4 years before Parr's death. Manier has since returned to Westland.

Manier, devastated by Farr's killing, told the Observer that the assailant "took everything away

"I'm sorry it didn't work out," he told them.

Prosecutor praised

Julie Santel, a female companion who was with Dues when he was shot to death, commended assistant Wayne County prosecutor Robert Hood (no relation to Judge Hood) for doing "the best that he could."

Santel, who had pictures of Dues with her Friday, said she found comfort in knowing that Burgess "will be going away for a long time."

Beverly Dues also commended the prosecutor and Judge Hood and called them "the most compassionate people in the world."

Dues was killed the afternoon of Jan. 29 after he repossessed Burgess' 1992 Mitsubishi Eclipse from his Bannister Court residence in Westland's south end.

Dues, working for Chrysler Credit Corp., had stopped a short distance from Burgess' residence to adjust the car on his tow truck when Burgess drove up in another car and got out with a Raven .25-caliber semiautomatic handgun. Dues was shot once in the chest, but Johnson tried to convince the jury that the shooting was accidental and that it occurred during a struggle. Santel's testimony contradicted the claim.

The jury also found Burgess guilty of two counts of felonious assault for threatening Santel and passerby Delores Turner with the gun. Turner stopped at the scene because she believed an accident had occurred.

The assault charges are punishable by up to four years in

The jury also returned a guilty verdict on a felony firearms charge that carries a mandatory two-year prison term.

The verdict came two days after jurors heard a Westland police 911 audio tape in which a frantic Santel called for help from Dues' tow truck. But Dues was dead on arrival at Annapolis Hospital in Wayne.

On the tape, Santel can be heard warning Dues that Burgess had a gun, and then she became hysterical, shouting, "Oh my God! No! No!"

Conviction expected

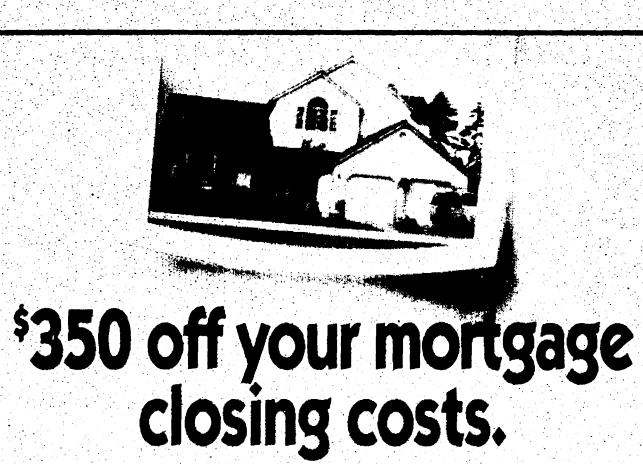

Turner, the passerby, said Burgess held the gun to her head at one point and forced her to help him search for eyeglasses that she said he was already wearing.

Westland police Sgt. Timothy Speir said the verdict was expected, and he commended Judge Hood for doing "an excellent job" in presiding over the case.

Mitchell said the second degree murder verdict in her father's death wasn't surprising because "we realize it's a difficult decision for a jury."

Stephenson, the other daughter, said jurors "deal with a lot of guilt in rendering a verdict."

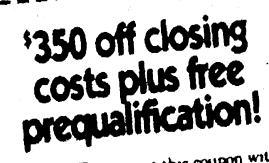

In addition to repossessing cars, Dues also owned a used car lot and was a former General Motors Corp. employee.

Hospice services offers help for grieving families

Community Hospice Services is offering a free adult grief recovery

The sessions are open to adulta who have suffered a loss of a loved

The classes will meet for six consecutive weeks at the organiration's main office, 32932 Warren Road at Venoy, Suite 100.

Sessions will begin 6:30-8 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 4, and conclude with a group memorial service in November.

Community Hospice Services provides services to incurably ill patients and their families in western Wayne, southern Oakland and eastern Washtenaw counties.

One of the most important factors that influence a person's grieving is whether that person receives validation for their feelings," said Kelly Rhoades, CHS director of bereavement and spiritual care.

The existing social attitude, although changing, is one of wanting to make it better and move the person through the pain at an unrealistic pace. Instead of offering support, society inadvertently discounts the grieving person's feelings. We need to respect the individual grief process of every person, and at the same time recognize and learn about the common themes that we all experience.

The series is a comprehensive six-week program designed to assist individuals, and families as they attempt to understand and work through the bereavement process. Learning to manage grief is one of the themes in the adult grief recovery series at CHS.

"We don't really recover from a significant loss, because our lives don't return to normal. We aren't the same people we were before the loss," said Rhoades. "We define a new normal for ourselves, discover strengths we never knew we had and may even grow, through the grief -- over time with adequate supports and opportunities to release feelings."

Other themes of the series include what makes it difficult to grieve, problems in grief, the fight against normal reactions to grief, learning to be good to yourself, and building self-esteem after loss.

"Many participants have benefited from the series simply by attending, observing and listening to the content," she said.

According to Rhoades, those who have completed the series have reported the experience as invaluable to them in their bereavement process. Some attendees reported that "the classes let me know I am not the only one mourning," and "meeting other people going through the same thing as me, and making friendships, helped me a great deal." The facilitator assumes an informal, open, self-disclosing style while teaching the series, and encourages participants to stay connected with one another after the series ends. Each session builds upon the next, so Rhoades suggests that participants make an effort to attend all six sessions for maximum benefit. There is no charge for the series and it is open to anyone who has experienced the death of a loved one.

Community Hospico Services offers a range of bereavement support programs including ongoing bereavement support groups; fiveweek bereavement educational series, focusing on aspects of the grieving process; children's grief support series; memorial services twice a year for bereaved families; bereavement counseling individual assessments; bereavement counseling referrals; and quarterly care letters.

Many components of Community Hospice Services' bereavement program are available, free of charge, to anyone in the community who has lost a loved one.

Local business provides help in finding college aid

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN

High school students and their parents know it's never too early to begin financial planning for college. Now a Westland couple's business helps them find funding to make those college dreams come true. If sederal Pell grants, university-based scholarships, endowment awards, work study programs and Perkins loans sound confusing, then Darryl and Jeanna English's EXPOSE (Early Preparation of Scholastic Endowment) service is for you.

Expose saves time searching for college financial aid, guides students and parents in filling out complex forms, and lowers the family contribution to the total tuition cost. A scholarship research and educational planning company working to prepare students for tabase of more than 240,000 private-sector scholarships awarding more than $14 million annually.

Whether you're a high school senior or a displaced worker, there's financial aid waiting for you to help with tuition costs for any accredited college, university or trade/technical school.

Qualifying can be as easy as being a former golf caddy or newspaper carrier.

General Motors has money available to assist engineering students while Orville Redenbacher caters to the crowd over age 30.

The Englishes guarantee students who use their service will receive at least seven potential sources of private sector financial aid or their fees will be refunded in full.

Four years of college costs anywhere from $30,000 to $100,000. An A student can get a full scholarship, but B students and C students are falling through the cracks. We try to develop a counselor-type relationship with prospective college students of all ages," said Jeanna English, an engineer for Ford Motor Co. in Dearborn.

"Don't let loans become a crutch. A lot of parents even remortgage their homes to take out loans. We have friends in the engineering field who still have to pay back $30.000."

Darryl English advises families to take the time to lay valuable groundwork which will pay off later. He spent two years researching funding for his own college costs.

in addition to government funding, a U.S. Congressional Study disclosed that more than $6.6 billion in private aid went unused. This is despite the fact that according to a Gallup Poll, many young people are passing up a college education because they don't know that the money is available.

"Education is important because it's the way of the future. Getting an education is a matter of knowing the rules and where to apply," said Darryl English, who works at the General Motors Design Center in Warren as an engineer, creating cars of the future.

"Get to know the financial aid officer at the college or university. If your family makes $100,000 a year, in most instances, you can still get something but if you don't stay up-to-date you don't know what's available.

Besides searching for financial aid. EXPOSE offers career planning, tutoring, and resume writing services as well as assistance in "Some $36 billion comes from the government to assist atudents. We wanted to focus on helping atudents because a lot of that money is going unused and it can be for as simple an error as leaving off a Social Security number that can cause rejection," said

Handgun permit battle opens at the capitol corral

BY TIM RICHARD STAFF WRITER

Law enforcement chiefs issued a shrill call for defeat of a handgun permit bill, due to come before a House panel in Lansing later this month.

Wayne County Prosecutor John O'Hair and allies Tuesday pictured police officers as constitutionally sworn professional protectors of society and would-behandgun carriers as "criminals who have avolded conviction, hot-. heads, alcohol abusers, drug abusers and people prone to do-mestic violence," plus malcontents with "a vigilante mentality" who are angry at bosses and spouses.

But the bill's chief backer said . "the record does not support the paranola at the front table." Tom Washington, executive director of make Michigan a "shall issue"

Clubs and president of the National Rifle Association, countered there has been no great increase in gun deaths in states like Florida, Texas and Virginia that. have eased their concealed weapons permit laws.

"This has got to hurt," Washington said of O'Hair's anti-CW

Object of the battle is House Bill 4720, sponsored by Rep. Alan Cropsey, R-DeWitt, in the House Judiciary Committee. Cropsey's bill would eliminate 83 county gun boards, where Washington says some law enforcement officials unconstitutionally deny concealed weapons permits to all but cops and ex-cops, The MUCC leader cited Livingston County as one example.

HB 4720, if adopted, would Michigan United Conservation state - an applicant must be issued a CW permit unless officials demonstrated he or she was a convicted felon, was facing a felony charge or had been judged insane at some point.

The applicant must pass a fingerprint check, take a gun safety course and have two hours of range time before approval.

Some 60,000 Michiganians now have such permits. Conventional wisdom holds that 4 percent of Wayne County Prosecutor John O'Hair was among the law enforcement chiefs who iast week issued a call for defeat of a handgun permit bill, due to come before a House panel in Lansing later this month.

the population will seek CW permits if the law is eased - a total of 360,000. Washington insisted that number is high because Florida, a larger state, didn't reach the 360,000 mark until eight years after changing its law. "Issuance of gun permits must remain a local decision," said Attorney General Frank Kelley, supporting O'Hair's group. "People are killing each other over fenderbenders (minor auto collisions)." State Police Commander Michael Robinson, citing a recent poll commissioned by the group, said "69 percent of our citizens don't support an increase in CW permits, and 71 percent believe accidental shootings will increase" if the law is eased.

Of the poll. Washington sald. "You get the result you want. They pre-determined the result." Of the poll results, he said, "There's not a shred of evidence to support that."

Ron Deziel, Dearborn police chief and president of the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police, said that under current law "anyone who desires to carry a CW must demonstrate a need to a gun board." The Cropsey bill would "promote a vigilante mentality.

Washington's response: Ex-police officers, lawyers and doctors, who already are able to obtain CW permits, have no particular need. 'We've got slaughter on the streets right now." There aren't enough police now to protect people adequately. Prosecutors who plea-bargain cases and judges who sentence lightly are to blame for gun-toting criminals on the streets. "Recidivism is the problem," Washington said.

"Guns are used a million times a year by people other than police to thwart crime," Washington added. Flint Mayor Woodrow Stanley objected that the Cropsey bill "shifts the burden of proof from the applicant to law enforcement. We can't do that." And Saginaw County Sheriff Terry Jungel said "this is not a constitutional issue; it's a public safety issue."

But Washington insisted it is indeed a constitutional issue because "Every person has a right to keep and bear arms for the defense of himself and the state," according to the Michigan Constitution. "When are we going to start trusting the vast majority of Michigan citizens?" he asked.

Refer to House Bill 4720 when writing your state representative, State Capitol, Lansing 48909. The House Judiciary Committee hasn't scheduled a hearing, but its regular meeting time is 9 a.m. Wednesdays in Room 428 of the State Capitol. Brickley outlines trial court reforms to legislature

BY TIM RICHARD STAPP WRITER

Chief Justice James Brickley wants lawmakers and voters to take the first glant step toward a unified trial court by merging circult and probate courts.

He told a joint mession of the Legislature Sept. 13 the next steps should be redrawing the boundaries of local district courts and demonstration projects testing the feasibility of merging diatrict courts with the new circuitprobate court.

"More details" was the overwhelming reaction of most lawmakers and some judges in the Capitol audience,

Brickley hit a jarring note with western Wayne legislators when he defended the continued existence of a Detroit-only Recorder's Court bench that handles all criminal cases in Wayne county. A Detroit city councilman in the 1960s, Brickley spoke at length of "the unique value of Recorder's Court" with its "most concentrated criminal docket."

"Unacceptable," said Rep. Deborah Whyman, R-Canton, sponsor of a bill to merge Recorder's Court with Wayne Circuit Court, the way all 82 other counties oper-Brickley stopped just short of recommending a single trial court but left no doubt he wants to move in that direction.

Gov. John Engler has blocked the creation of new local court judgeships until some kind of reorganization is accomplished and Brickley made it clear he heard Engler's message. Among areas clamoring for additional judges are Oakland Circuit Court, the Parmington area district court, western Oakland and western Wayne district courts, and Ypsilanti Township.

The chief justice made one of the most vigorous calls in Michigan history for strong leadership user confusion about what court by the Supreme Court that still would recognize "community creativity." Specifically, Brickley and his six fellow justices called

> "No new judgeships" for at least a year.

> A 1996 constitutional amendment to be approved by lawmakers and voters eliminating the constitutional status of probate courts.

Local flexibility for those unified courts to divide family, civil, criminal and other kinds of cases. ■ Supreme Court appointment of the chief judge in each local area. State funding of "core costs" --judicial salaries, lawyers for indigents, information technology. He termed the present mixed system of state and local funding as "increasingly chaotic," likening it to a Victorian house - ornate but grams. Statewide standards for trial court performance, budget procedures, and training of chief judg-

Earlier in the day, the Senate Journal published Gov. Engler's yeto of additional funds for autstate courts. In words that were a preface to Brickley's message, Engler seid:

'Major near-term decisions include trial court reorganization along with appropriate revisions to the judicial article of the Constitution, as well as the appropriate number, location and jurisdiction of trial judges.

"Expanded state funding of Michigan trial courts can only go forward on a rational basis after these major structural decisions are made. Until these decisions are made, I cannot support additional funds for local courts. For this reason . . . I am vetoing the additional funding for out-state courts.

"However, under the structure of this bill, the Supreme Court now has flexibility to reallocate resources to increase funding to local courts and also to change the method by which funds are distributed among local courts."

Local lawmakers are wary of plan

Western Wayne' County lawmakers were unhappy that Chief Justice Brickley doesn't want to merge Detroit Recorder's Court into Wayne Circuit Court. And some were wary of Brickley's proposal to redraw unnamed district court boundaries for greater efficiency. "I'm quite flattered," said Rep. Deborah Whyman, R-Canton, "that he went on and on about my legislation. I'm flattered I got his attention." Brickley went to great length to say Detroit Recorder's Court, which handles all Wayne County criminal cases, should be retained.

Whyman is sponsor of a bill to eliminate Recorder's Court, making Wayne like all other 82 counties where a court of countywide jurisdiction handles all criminal cases. The city councils of Detroit and Inkster oppose Whyman's bill; most suburban bodies support her bill, including Garden City and Westland city councils and Redford, Canton and Northville township boards,

"His plan is not acceptable. The Supreme Court has the ability to merge and de-merge courts outside of the law. The Legisla. ture gives them authority to mane their dockets as they see fit.

"The problem is that in six months or a year, the (local) courts can be de merged again at the whim of the Supreme Court,"

she said. Whyman will pursue her as though we would lose those bill to merge the two courts by statute. Her bill would "grandfather" Recorder's Court judges as Wayne Circuit judges until they're up for re-election.

Rep. Gerald Law, R-Plymouth, a member of the House Judiciary Committee and a backer of Whyman's bill, said, "The chief justice made some good points in trying to merge some of the trial courts. It wil help to streamline the system and better utilize the judges who are there."

Opposes plan

But Law opposes Brickley's plan to keep Detroit Recorder's Court as the countywide criminal court. "The people from my area will have to use Recorder's Court for criminal cases, but we still cannot elect those judges, and juries are not made up from people from my communities," Law said. "And that's totally unacceptable."

Law also is wary of Brickley's long-range goal of merging local district courts with the combined circuit-probate court. Chief reason: 35th District Court is a money-maker for local units rather than being a cost drain.

My big problem is what nappens to the revenue from my district court that now goes to local communities (the Plymouths, the Northvilles and Canton). It looks dollars if it were merged into the circuit and probate court."

Rep. Tom Kelly, D-Wayne, wants to see more details before deciding on merger of circuit and probate courts. The first-term lawmaker, whose district includes Garden City, also is curious about which district courts will be chosen for pilot tests on merging them with trial courts.

"He (Brickley) said selected courts,' didn't he?" Kelly said at the end of the chief justice's speech. On the suggestion of redrawing district court boundaries, Kelly said, "It might be a tactical way to save a lot of money and be very efficient."

"The promise is there," said Garden City District Judge Richard Hammer Jr., who sat with Kelly on the House floor, "but the details have to be worked out. The prospect of merging circuit and probate courts in Wayne County — I don't know how much that will help the typical citizen. That will require a constitutional amendment approved by the peo-

Rep. Eileen DeHart, D-Westland, said, "What he didn't address was the problem I have in Westland District Court - its overcrowded docket. My two district judges are overworked: Some neighboring courts don't have near the caseload."

As for redrawing district court boundaries, DeHart said, "I don't think it will make the citizens of Westland very happy. They think of their 18th District judges as 'Westland's judges.' '

Rep. James Ryan, D-Redford - a member of the House Judiciary Committee, which will have first crack at any court reorganization proposals - said Brickley seems to be seeking "greater uniformity" in trial courts throughout the state.

Retailers help define rules of casual dress

Retailers are putting big bucks behind Business Casual. Marketing strategies include textbooks, brochures, worksite consultations, and mall fashion shows. Awl Come on! What's so complicated about wearing khakis and a polo shirt?

'We look at Business Casual as almost a science in our new book, "The Complete Guide To Dressing for Workday Casual," Mariana Keros insisted. "We identify three working environments and explain how to dress casually for each.

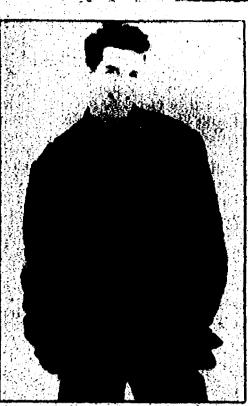

"People either work in an informal office environment, a semi-formal office environment, or a formal office en-

For example, you can wear jeans in an informal office, but not in a semi-formal office where you should wear khakis or a jumper, which would not be acceptable in a formal office where you should wear a pantsuit, or blazer and skirt, even on casual days. Understand?"

'Well, yes. But what if you're calling on a client on a designated casual dress day?" I posed.

Frame fun: Smaller, more oval-shaped frames in a variety of colors is the trend in children's eyewear today, like these from Nickelodeon. Sears Optical offers any kids' frame with ultralight lenses, UV protection, and two-year breakage protection for $139.

New kids frames bring 'cool' to eye glasses

Getting children to wear their eyeglasses during school hours used to be a difficult assignment. Discomfort, self-consciousness, and fear of being different kept kids from seeing clearly and learning effectively.

Not so today, according to Marj McGraw, frame fashion consultant for Sears Optical.

"Today's styles are so kidfriendly that even children who don't need glasses want to wear them," McGraw said, "For one thing, children's favorite forms of entertainment, like the Nickelo-deon cable TV channel, are the namesakes for the newest eyewear lines."

Peanuts and French Toast are the popular, newer styles, but the Crayola brand has its loyal customers.

McGraw said metal frames are the most popular material for kids' glasses frames, and this year, oval shapes are the most appealing because they are trendier. In addition, colors are more vivid than in past years. And, best of all, the logos the kids love are on both glasses and cases.

Any child or teen who watches Nickelodeon will be sure to spot the well-known symbols of "slime" and "dog bone" and will recognize the identifying logos that kids love to show off. Snoopy graces the Peanuts eyewear, and the French Toast logo appears on the lenses in the same way it is identified on the French Toast clothing line.

Dr. Greg Actipes, Sears Optical spokesman, said parents must be alert to spotting a child's vision problems.

"Children don't necessarily know that they aren't seeing as other children see," he said. "Therefore they may not mention their vision difficulties and it may take years to realize something is

A school vision screening, though not a substitute for a comprehensive eye examination, may be a good first step in protecting eye health and preventing unnecessary blindness, according to Actipes. He recommends further visual evaluation and a comprehensive eye examination when the screening indicates a possible vision problem.

If the need for eyeglasses is established, the first rule for getting children to not only love but wear their glasses is to allow the child to select the frames and glasses case he or she likes, even though it may not be the parent's first choice, according to McGraw.

"If children have a sense of control in the selection, they will be more likely to wear the glasses." Additionally, McGraw gives the following tips for helping children select glasses:

Choose polycarbonate lenses. an impact- and scratch-resistant lightweight plastic material that provides important protection against serious eye injuries and provides UV protection to block out the sun's harmful rays.

■ Look for flexible frames made of new bendable materials that return to their original shape when twisted beyond nominal endurance.

Choose spring hinges, which give added flexibility to the glasses and enhance their ability to withstand kid handling.

Select non-corrosive frame materials that are unaffected by perspiration, paint, or even peanut

Make sure the lenses have built in protection against the sun's ultraviolet rays.

Make sure the eyeglasses fit well; they hug the nose snugly, the bridges are intact, and the screws attaching the temples haven't loosened.

Consider purchasing safety goggles for your children, whether they wear prescription lenses or not. Statistics show that eye injuries occur during sports activity when protection is not utilized.

Much Ado About Casual is playing at Jacobson's stores, too. And spokeswoman Janice Hayes said the houses are packed.

"We've given our sophisticated workday casual fashion seminars out to thousands of employees at Chrysler Pinancial, ITT Automotive, and Delphi, a division of General Motors, to name a few," she said. "Jacobson's staff members work with each company's Human Resource Department to customize the presentations, and we often do makeovers on employee volunteers."

Hayes said when casual days are instituted, employees immediately have questions like, Can I wear shorts in the summer? Are culottes acceptable?

Jacobson's leaves each participant with its "Guidelines For Casual Day" brochure and a copy of 'Working Partners" a catalog filled with wardrobe extending separates, accessory options and ideas. Jacobson's personal shoppers have also been trained in selecting business casual ensembles for customers. The fashion retailers at Laurel Park Place in Livonia and Northland Center in Southfield just staged mail-wide salutes to "Casual Concepts That Work," showing casual ensembles from their stores. Laurel Park Place's marketing director Susan Azar said the show was "inspired by the shift from traditional wear to casual wear in the workplace, designed to provide practical solutions to all the questions about what to wear on Casual Day."

Mervyn's is also on the business casual bandwagon with its very simplified "5 Essentials For Men" and "5 Essentials for Women," guides. According to the retailer, guys need: a sportcoat (preferably tweed), a vest (designed to enhance an outfit and offer layering possibilities), a denim shirt (worn with or without a tie), a shirt with a banded collar (wears well alone or under a sportcoat), corduroy pants (they strike a balance between formal and overly casual.)

Walk for diabetes

The third annual Walktoberfest, a special walkathon held every year by the Michlgan affiliate of the American Diabetes Association, is expected to attract more than 4,000 walkers and raise a projected $282,000 for medical research almed at finding a cure for dlabetes.

The event, which will be held Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 30 and Oct. 1, at seven locations across the state, will benefit the more than 500,000 people in Michigan and the nearly 14 million Americans nationwide who have diabetes. In southeastern Michigan Walktoberfest will be held at Lake Erie, Kensington and Metro Beach metroparks.

To sign up to walk in Walktoberfest or to find out how to sponsor a walker, call the American Diabetes Association at 1-800-254-WALK.

"Everyone knows someone with diabetes, whether it's a family member, a friend or a co-worker," said Dave Buck, Walktoberfest committee chairman.

"The money raised by Walktoberfest will fund medical research almod at finding a cure and educational programs for people with diabetes to help them live successfully with the disease until the day when a cure is available. Walktoberfeat is a fun and healthy way to support this effort."

More than half of the Michigan residents who have dia-betes are unaware of it, according to Buck. Many of them will first learn they have the disease when treated for one of its serious health complications.

This year alone, more than-650,000 people across the country will be diagnosed with diabetes and more than 160,000 will die from it.

House pushed to pass lobby reform

(AP) - Pressure is building in the U.S. House to approve a Senate-passed bill that would overhaul the loophole-ridden leglalation governing those who lobby Congress.

But in the end, passing such a lobby reform hill may hinge on whether Republican House members can convince their leadership that it can be debated quickly enough to be put on this year's already crowded and beavy-hitting GOP legislative agenda.

"Our lobbying registration laws have become a joke, leaving more professional lobbyists unregistered than registered," Sen. Carl Levin, D.Mich., testified Thursday before the House subcommittee responsible for starting the bill on its way toward the House

"This Congress has a real opportunity to act, and it will enhance public confidence if we do act," said Levin, who has been working on lobby reform legislaConn., the head of a 12-member bipartisan reform group, said Speaker Newt Gingrich, R.Ga., has promised that lobbying and gift reform will be taken up early next year. Shays wants to speed up that schedule.

Shays said the group hoped the Senate-passed bill could go straight to the House floor without getting bogged down in changes. He appealed to Rep. Henry Hyde, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, to help get Gingrich to raise the legislation this year under an agreement that it be debated for a single day.

Shays said the leadership's concern was that lobby reform could generate tremendous debate and divide Republican ranks already dealing with big issues such as balancing the budget and overhauling the welfare system.

The Senate lobby reform bill, crafted mostly by Levin and Sen. William Cohen, R-Maine, passed vocates who spend more than 20 percent of their time lobbying Congress or the executive branch would have to register and identify their clients, which issues were lobbled and roughly how much was spent.

The General Accounting Office, Congress' investigative arm, said fewer than one-third of the thousands of individuals listed as paid advocates actually were registered as lobbyists. Of 1,000 lobbying reports filed in 1989, the GAO found more than 60 percent reported no serious expenditures.

"We need to address the concern that special interests have undue influence over Congress, said Rep. Paul McHale, D.Pa., who with Shays on Wednesday introduced the House lobby reform bill identical to the Senate version.

Rep. Barney Frank, D. Mass., a member of the Constitution Subcommittee, said, "I'm afraid this bill will be the recipient of more

Rep. Michael Castle, R.Del. worried if the House did not take up the Senate-passed bill, opponents would use the differences hetween the two to block it while the year ran out. The process would have to start from scratch again next year.

If the House pushed through the Senate passed bill, it would go straight to the president's desk.

"I think now that the Senate has acted, there's a lot of us saying we want to do this," Rep. Fred Upton, R-St. Joseph, said in an interview. "You can't tell me between now and Christmas that we don't have one spare hour to do this. We do.'

Frank repeatedly pushed Rep. Charles Canady, R.Fla., the subcommittee chairman, for a timetable within the next month when the bill could go to the floor. He

CHEF LARRY JANES

Harvest and preserve the fruits of your labor

on't you just love this time of year? The kids are back in school, the cays are getting cooler, and the nights are getting longer. It's the peak of the harvest season, and a trip to the vegetable market offers just about. anything Michigan fields and orchards have to offer.

Raven-colored eggplant, cabbages bigger than basketballs, and apples so sweet and crisp that they explode when bitten into. My reusable mesh vegetable bag is bulging at the seams, and the freezer is jammed with blueberries, tomatoes, and blanched green beans.

Thyme, mint, basil, tarragon and dill have given my garden an aroma that just begs you to walk through it barefoot.

Canning guides

Canning season is under way. There are a multitude of books that answer just about all you ever needed - and wanted - to know about canning and food preservation. One of the best and most widely used - is the 32nd edition of the "Ball Blue Book," available wherever canning supplies are sold.

The rules have changed since momma and I put up some peaches a few years back. Whereas in the olden days I might be tempted to get a canning book from my local library, or rely on a 1982 edition of "The Farm Journal's Freezing" and Canning Book," now I rely on the "Blue Book," which won't set you back more than $10. But if you're short on time and money and need a quick fix, help is available from the Oakland County Cooperative Extension Service, (810) 858-0904 weekdays 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and the Wayne County Extension, (313) 494,3013, Wednesdays 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

There are even a few recipe books on the market that offer exotic tips for "putting food up." Some of the suggestions and recipes are gourmet. A favorite is "Home Made in the Kitchen" by Harry Bluestein and Kevin Morrissey (copyright 1994, Viking Books, $24.95.) This tome includes traditional recipes and household projects that are easy to prepare. From herbalcandles to meatless mincemeat, I can personally attest to the red pepper jelly and blackberry cor-

If your vegetable garden is overflowing, check out "Salsas, Sambals, Chutneys and Chovichows" by Chris Schlesinger and John Willoughby (copyright 1993, Morrow Books, $20.) Their cucumber chowchow can be made and refrigerated for up to one month. I've learned the longer it sits, the better it gets.

If you have herbs and have access to an assortment of peppers, your mouth will feel like an erupting volcano after making some of the chiles, dry rubs, salsas, vinegars and jellies in The El-Paso Chile Company's "Burning Desires" by W. Park Kerr, (copyright 1994, Morrow Books, $15). The two tomato Chipolte Sauce and Christmas Ketchup recipes are worth the price of the book. Pickle and Relish freaks will go bonkers over Andrea Chesman's "Pickles and Relishes," (copyright 1992, Storey Communications Inc., $9.95) which features 150 different recipes for making everything from apples to zucchini. The recipe for plum sauce is better than anything I have ever dreamed of putting over fowl.

U-pick directory

To coin a phrase from the Michigan Department of Agriculture's updated Farm Market and U-Pick Directory, "In Michigan, nothing's usgood as homegrown." This year's updated directory includes nearly 300 farm markets and Upick farms where you can enjoy fresh homegrown Michigan produce. Many of these operations also offer related products such as plants, herbs, Christmas trees, cider, honey, jams, syrup and a host of other Michigan agricultural producta that are part of our state's bounty. The book is free by calling or writing the Michigan Department of Agriculture, Marketing Division at P.O.

Box 30017, Enneing, MI 48909, (517) 373-1058. This book has a permanent apot on my reference shelf and should on your's, too!

Bome of the best times I've spent with momma were over a case of Mason jara and hashel of tomatoes, If you know of a sensor, or better yet, want to share the experience with a youngster, the bounty couldn't be more readily available nor the time as well. The fruits of your labor will be appreciated. Oh a cold, blustery day in February, you'll thank me for the idea.

Cranbrook Institute of Science will celebrate the sweet taste of fall's harvest with a Honey and Apples Festival Sept. 23-24; Sept. 30 and Oct. 1. Been are tho festival's main focus, since without them there would be no honey and a lot fewer apples.

"A lot of people don't know that the bees make the honey. They know the bees collect the honey, but they don't know they make it," said Maureen Dolson, Cranbrook's head naturalist.

Great Burgundies are sliky, sq. ductive wines. They careau rather than bowl you over. They are lighter than merlot, but they have so much flavor. Burgundles are wonderful with food, almost any. thing except beef steak. A light Burgundy is a gustatory delight with grilled salmon or roast chicken. A heavier wine can be paired with veal, pork, lamb, or game birds, but it is wise to avoid tomato sauce.

Unlike Bordeaux or wines made of cabernet sauvignon, most Burgundies do not age gracefully past 10 years. A few age very long, but this is the exception, not the rule. To leave a message on the Heald's voice muil - dial 953.

Pitt, Freeman hunt down a serial killer in 'Seven'

BY JOHN MONAGHAN Special Writer

Brad Pitt is tired of being the sexiest man on the planet. He spends much of the new thriller, "Seven," wearing razor stubble, a soggy trenchcoat, and short-cropped hair that could stand to meet a comb.

And that-million dollar face featured on the cover of "People" magazine? Most of the time it's hidden beneath cuts and bandages, the result of a bloody chase with a serial killer.

Today, however, Pitt looks like you'd expect him to: casually handsome in jeans and a buttondown, like he just stepped from the pages of "GQ." He has come to New York along with co-star Morgan Freeman to promote their new film, which opens Friday, Sept, 22.

"I had done the mythic thing, ran it into the ground," Pitt admits, comparing his role in "Seven" to his earlier successes in "A River Runs Through It" and "Legends of the Pall," "This part is more down, more conversation-

He plays David Mills, the younger of two detectives who hunt a serial killer. The twist here is that the victims all die in the fashion of one of the Seven Deadly Sins.

Told from the detective's point of view, the movie spares us the actual acts of mutilation and sadism. We do see the aftermath — Pride as represented by a woman who chose death over facial scars. Gluttony by a man forced to eat himself to death — and it isn't pretty.

"I don't see anything in 'Seven' that I don't see on the news every night," Pitt says in response to the violence in the film. "I admit it's sick, it's brutal, but it's also brutally honest."

The movie is Pitt's second foray into the world of serial killers. In "Kelifornia," he played the even more unglamorous part of a maddog killer and redneck, an image that didn't help him at the box office.

He may have better luck with "Seven," a clever thriller with so many bizarre twists that it would be a sin to give them away. "The guy's got a point," Pitt says of the movie's villain, who takes his disapproval of modern morals to the extreme. "But he goes about it the wrong way."

Freeman walks into his interview engrossed in this morning's crossword puzzle from the "Times." "Five-letter word for pure, clean," he says under his breath. A few of the more literate critics at the round table interview chime in, "Fresh."

Far from rude, Freeman greets by name or city a number of reporters he has probably met no more than once before. No wonder "Seven" director David Finchers says that working with Freeman is like "working with Yoda."

He lives on a 30-acre farm in Mississippi when he's not appearing in movie roles, which have been plentiful since he became a household name with "Glory," "Driving Miss Daisy" and "Street Smart."

He says that typecasting is often the fault of an actor who doesn't know when to turn a part down. He says, "After 'Daisy,' I was offered a whole slew of old man roles, after 'Street Smart' dance parts, but I'm always interested in trying something new."

Though here to talk about "Seven," where he plays a police detective on his last big case, Freeman shares anecdotes from his 30-year career on stage and screen. He does a great imitation of Paul Newman, who gave him his first big break in film when casting "Harry and Son" in 1984.

He also shares his feelings about the Oscar, which has elud-

"I remember being a kid and winning some award or another for best actor in my school," he says. "When I didn't win it the next year, I was crushed, devastated. I thought, 'I'm already a has been'... I learned then that if you think about awards you're just shooting yourself in the foot."

He doesn't share Pitt's obsession with "getting into" a role. He uses instead an old adage by Spencer Tracy, like Freeman one of the screen's most natural actors. "I don't sit down and ponder my characters," he says. "I just hit the marks."

Save merger plan if done right way

Setting the record straight.

Contrary to what some people may think, I am not opposed to a merger between the seven-school Kensington Valley Conference and the 12-school Western Lakes Activities Association.

WLAA principals met last Monday and it appears the mega merger talks have been tabled once again until January.

The principals of the WLAA are apparently taking a wait-and-see attitude until civil rights legal complaints are determined in the downriver Mega Anyway, the merger between the KVC and the WLAA could be done by two simple moves.

Put WLAA members Northville, Walled Lake Central and Walled Lake Western into the KVC, joining Novi, South Lyon, Brighton, Howell, Milford, Lakeland and Hartland.

Fits into nicely into one geographic area, right? That would also solve football, basketball and wrestling scheduling problems for the existing KVC schools. In football, for example, you wouldn't have to schedule outside your league.

But what about nine remaining WLAA members - Plymouth Canton, Salem, Westland John Glenn, Livonia Churchill, Franklin, Stevenson, Farmington, Harrison and North Farmington?

How about inviting Wayne Memorial, a member of the same school district as John Glenn, into the

That makes another good fit - 10 schools all in a reasonable geographic area. It makes just as much sense for Wayne to travel to Farmington Harrison than it does in the Mega to travel to

Then, both leagues could agree on cross schedu-

The only hangup is the exclusion factor. Class A schools like Ann Arbor Huron, Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor Ploneer are still looking in from the outside. Also, Northville Assistant Principal Dennis

Colligan, the Mustangs' former athletic director and head football coach, said I took a cheap shot at his school in my recent column about the mega

He pointed out that Northville has had one of the better cumulative football records in the WLAA over the past five years and they don't duck anybody in nonleague football contests, noting that the Mustanga opened this year with stateranked South Lyon and play Novi in their other non-leaguer.

Agreed from this end on both points, Denny. But, I do recall Northville Principal Tom Johnson atreasing to me last summer that one of the big reasons why they were in favor of merging with the KVC was because it would align schools into divisions by sport based on performance records. It's hard to say whether Northville would remain in the same football division as Parmington Hills Harrison. The Mustangs have only beaten the Hawks once during the past three decades. My point is that the merger should be based on travel and enrollment concerns, not on past performance records by sport.

In football, it appears Dearborn High and Allen Park are both playing a division too low in the Mega hased on their five-year records. It's just a thought.

More cheap shots?

Received a call from a parent (on a car phone) who pointed out that Livonia Churchill's football team had been outscored 690 in its first two games and not 79.0 as was erroneously reported in my recent grid prediction column.

Math was never one of my strengths, except for geometry, so I apologize for the error.

But the complaint from the parent didn't stop

He said our stories about Churchill football have been "one sided" and we should "let up on them" because "these kids are working so hard."

I know, in my heart, we've tried to be fair about Churchill football, despite the fact that they've been beaten in 47 of their last 48 games.

First of all, if I hear another parent tell me their kids are working so hard I'm going to gag.

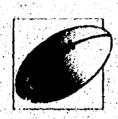

I assume everybody is working hard, but let's face it, the concept of hard work can be open to interpretation.

Certainly, arrimmers like Livonia Stevenson's Anne Ariateo know the meaning of hard work. Talent alone doesn't get you into the Olympic Triels. And I'm sure All-Stater Brent Washington worked hard last year in the Clenn football program, but when I talked to him at the Michigan Media Presa Day last month, I saked how practice had been going. He said, "Things move at a lot factor pace,

Shamrocks ground Pilots, 31-13

Redford Catholic Central's football team stayed undefeated with a convincing victory over Warren DeLaSalle, the defending Catholic League champion and Class AA semifinalist.

BY STEVE KOWALSKI

Warren DeLaSalle football coach Ross McDonald wasn't aurprised by what Redford Catholic Central ran, but who the Shamrocks ran.

Senior tailback Kevin Quay, out last week with an injury, got the start Saturday night and scored one touchdown while gaining 115 yards on 23 carries in CC's 31-13 victory over De-LaSalle before an overflow crowd at Clarenceville High School.

McDonald was expecting to see shifty junior tailback Greg Alcala in the CC lineup, but Shamrocks coach Tom Mach pulled a surprise.

The Shamrocks scored on their first three possessions to go up 21-0. The offense was working so well, Mach decided to stay with Quay.

The Pilots didn't see Alcala until the final minutes, when the game was already decided. The Shamrocks opened up a 21-7 halftime lead on the Pilota, who ran only eight plays in the first half compared to 41 by CC.

The Shamrocks had 250 total yards before halftime and held the Pilota' explosive offense to 39.

Our other back (Alcala) is real good, but we decided to start the game with a 'goal-line' look, see if we could knock them down and atay with it." Mach sold. "I was real proud of the way we came out to play."

The Shamrocks' defense also contributed two sacks, one each from Nick Lachapelle and Milam Brooks. The Smiley brothers, Mike and Tom, were in the DeLaSalle backfield all

The win moved the Shamrocks to 3-0 overall, 1-0 in the Western Divialon of the Catholic League. The Pilots, Class AA semifinalists last year, fell to 1-2 overall, 0-1 in the Western Division.

CC senior fullback John Spolsky led the Shamrocks with 132 yards on 17 carries, including TD runs of 10 and 16 yards, Quay scored on a 4-yard run and quarterback Greg Call was effective on the option, gaining 98 yards on 13 carries with a 4-yard TD. Bron Kosmowski made all four of his extra-point attempts, kicked a 32yard field goal and raised eyebrows with a 73-yard punt.

Quay didn't even know he'd get the bulk of the carries at tailback until game time.

"Coach can send me and John up the middle, smash it up, and Greg outside," Quay said. "It keeps them on their feet all game."

CC took the opening kickoff and marched 63 yards on 10 carries, scoring on Quay's 4-yard run with 7:06 remaining.

The Shamrocks forced a fumble on DelaSalle's first play from scrimmage and Spolsky recovered at the Pilots' 21. Six plays later, Call scored from the 4 on a keeper with 3:33 remaining in the first quarter.

A long kickoff return gave De-LaSalle possession at CC's 21. But Lachapelle sacked Pilota' quarterback Matt Bitonti for an 11-yard loss on third down and Vince Thomas was dropped for a 7-yard less following a completed pass to give the ball back to CC at its own 29.

The Shamrocks took the ensuing possession 71 yards on 10 plays, scoring on Spolsky's 10 yard run for a 21.

About all that kept this from a first-half runaway was a nifty 36-yard run by Thomas, and a smart play by the Pilots' Mike Jolet, who stripped Spoisky of the ball at the DeLaSalle 7.

"You can't play this team on a 20-, 30-yard field and that's what we did," McDonald said.

CC went ahead 28-17 on a 16-yard run by Spolsky with 11:09 left in the third quarter to cap a six-play, 53yard drive. The Pilots scored within the next minute as Bltonti capped a 60-yard drive with an 8-yard keeper with 10:08 remaining.

But Call raced 47 yards down the sideline to set up Kosmowski's field goal with 7:10 remaining.

Rockets sputter, but win

BY BRAD EMONS

It was hard to detect who were the winning and losing coaches following Westland John Glenn's 16.0 football win Priday night over visiting Plymouth Salem.

Glenn coach Chuck Gordon was certainly happy that his team is now 3.0 on the season, but less than thrilled about the way his team moved the ball offensively.

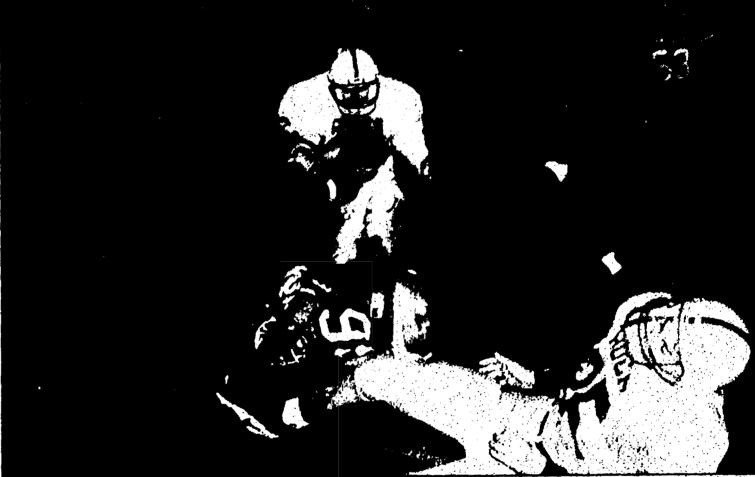

Meanwhile, Salem coach Tom Moshimer was upbeat about his team's performance despite falling to 0.3 on the year. They came out hitting and never stopped until the final

"It's a win," Gordon said. "And believe it or not, we're getting a little better each time out, but we've got a lot of work to do and we have to get after some things.

"I thought Tom Moshimer and his staff did a tremendous job getting that team ready to play. They've started out 0.2, but I have a lot of respect for that staff and the way their players have hung in there during tough times."

It was a defensive struggle for the most part. Glenn had only 119 yards total offense to Salem's 113.

"We played hard and I'm extremely proud of our intensity," said Moshimer, whose team lost 42.0 to Belleville in the opener and 31-7 to Northville the second week. "We were a different team tonight than the first two games. It was gut-check time. Wehad to step up because we were playing an excellent football team. I thought if we played hard, and played mistake free, we had a chance to win. We played hard, but unfortunately we made some mistakes."

Loose football: Plymouth Salem's Brett Burleson (No. 33) can't get a handle on the tipped pass intended for Westland John Glenn tight end John Becher during Friday's Lakes Division

The outcome boiled down to three point-after on the day to make it 16-0 big plays for Glenn and two costly errors for the Rocks.

The first big play occurred with 16 seconds left in the opening period when Salem punter Taras Senluch was tackled in the end zone for a twopoint safety by Glenn's Terry

Glenn made it 9.0 with 8:36 left in the second quarter when sophomore quarterback Justin Berent, faced with a fourth-and-15 situation, connected with senior tailback Jay Jackson (19 carries for 64 yards) on a 24-yard touchdown pass.

Jackson, who ran in motion on the play, was wide open in the end zone.

Glenn's Matt Griglio then picked off a Salem pass on the ensuing series and five plays later, Berent hooked up with Bernie Toby, who was well covered on the play, on a 29-yard TD pass. (Steve Paling added his second with 3:45 left in the half).

That was the extent of the scoring. In the third quarter, Selem drove 84 yards in 18 plays down to the Glenn 15, but tackle Jeff Cook, shooting the gap, stuffed Salem ball carrier. Kevin Grim at the line of scrimmage on fourth-and-1.

"When you play defense like that you're always in the game," Gordon said. "That defense came up big when we needed them to. Our defense has played well all year."

But Glenn's inability to sustain an offensive drive troubles Gordon.

"That's disappointing," he said. "But they (Salem) were up in there (at the line of scrimmage) with eight guys. We hit a couple of passes, but you need to hit more.

"We hit some big plays. When you get a chance to make big plays you've got to make them."

Salem, meanwhile, is far from full strength. It seemed the Rocks had more (injured) players walking the sidelines not dressed than those suit-Senior quarterback Nate Gray, who suffered a broken thumb during the preseason, returned to the starting "I think emotionally it helped our team having him back, even though he was very limited in what he could do because it's on his throwing hand," Moshimer. "But I thought he threw decently (four of nine for 37 yards) even though his hand is taped Moshimer believes his team can rebound despite losing its Lakes Division opener in the Western Lakes Activities Association.

"Everybody picked us last in our conference, but if we play that hard from here on out, I guaranteed won't finish last," he said.

Churchill upsets Salem Rocks, 2-1

Plymouth Salem fans should look at the bright side at least their boys soccer team won't have the weight of an unbraten season to carry around any more.

"We're a little disappointed," Coach Ken Johnson and after the Rocks were tumbled and humbled, 2. 1, Wednesday night by Livonia Churchill to break Salem's seasonstarting six-game winning streak.

"But, it's a tough league, We've got to bounce back, but we'll do it." he said. "We've got a good team."

"It was unbelievable," rookie Churchill coach Chad Campau said. "It was easily the higgest game I've

"I played at Churchill and all the big games we played, it seemed like we never won. So this is one of the biggest. The guys played hard the whole game, both teams. It was an nudermadie wije

Brett Konley scored off an assist hy Matt Simons to give bost Salem a 1 0 lead midway through the first half,

But Rob Bartoletti acored with about 10 minutes left in regulation to tie the score and Brian Zawislak scored with about a minute left to keep Churchill undefeated at 4-0-1.

Churchill is 3.0 in the WLAA, 2.0 in the West Division and has only a tie against Rochester Adams to stain its record. Salem is now 3-1 in the Western Lakes Activities Association, 3.0 in its conference and 6-1

According to shot charts kept by Campau's bench, Salem held a 13-10.

Brett Karwowski recovered two Northville fumbles and John Maddison, Jay Myrand and Steve Ashbay recovered one each. The Patriots also had two interceptions, one by Maddison and one by Myrand.

The Patriots needed the turnovers with Northville enjoying a 289-106 advantage in total yardage. Northville had 16 first downs to five by Franklin.

The Patriots scored on field goals of 27 and 22 yards by Brandon Bell, Northville scored on an 8-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Scott Vigh to Eric Moore in the second quarter. Northville senior Aneil Kersey carried 31 times for 176 yards.

Both of Bell's kicks came after Northville turnovers.

That was the situation last week when I reported a young man had just come up through the youth leagues to bowl with the big boys and nail down a 300 game in his first outing. As is often the case, the glitch might have been a result of the electronic scanner which misread the man's last name.

My apologies to Rick Bolnik as these things unfortunately do happen. It was a terrific accomplishment, nonetheless. A lot of folks who have never been there cannot imagine the amount of mental and emotional pressure there is to schleving the first perfect game. The way you did it just adds more of a glow to the accomplishment itself.

Stempien hat trick sparks Crusaders

The record isn't bad, especially for a second-year team.

It's just that it could be better. At least that's what Pete Alexander, the coach of the Madonna University soccer team, thinks. All his team needs to do is execute better on the offensive end, and its 3.2.1 record could be 5.1.

Last Thursday against visiting Concordia College, the Fighting Crusaders were able to put one into the win column. But the 3-0 victory wasn't perfect - not by a long shot.

"In the first half, we didn't play very good soccer," said Alexander. "We played down to their level."

And when you're playing a team as weak as Concordia -- the loss to Madonna was the Cardinals fourth this season without a win - you look for more than just a win.

You want domination.

"It easily could have been eight or nine to nothing," said Alexan. der. "Composure in the offensive end will do it for us. There's some stuff we just got to keep working on. We're still real young."

Their youth is evident: only two seniors and one junior on the roster. It was fortunate the Crusaders had one of those seniors against Concordia — Jason Stempien, who transferred in after Central Michigan University dropped soccer.

Stemplen scored all three Madonna goals, netting one in the first half and two in the second.

Dan McEvilly (from Livonia Churchill) was in goal for the Crusaders to earn the shutcut, one thing which did please Alexander. Although Concordia has been unable to defeat anyone, this was the first time the Cards were blanked.

"It was good to see we could come away with this," said Alexander. "They're doing well."

He'd feel a lot better about his team if a few more balls could end up in the opponents' net, instead of bouncing off the crossbar or flying over it.

New sandlot loop challenges LCBL

By Steve Kowalski

Henry Ford Community College baseball coach Slu Rose is start-1996 that could jeopardize the future of the Livonia Collegiate Baseball League.

Three of the five teams who played last summer in the LCBL, Hines Park Lincoln Mercury, Decision Consultants Inc. and Adray Appliance, have committed to the new league which will be sponsored by Rose's Sports Academy of Novi.

Rick Berryman, the Redford Union coach, also will bring a team in under the sponsorship of the Rams Baseball Organization. Rose said.

Rose said the LCBL's residency rule, requiring each team to have at least five players from the city it uses as a home base, and the lack of commitment from some teams to win were the reasons for starting a new league.

Rose's league will have no residency requirements. Games will be played at Henry Ford Community College in Dearborn and Madonna University Park in Livo-

"The coaches are fed up with the residency requirements," said: Rose, a Farmington Hills resident. who is a former RU baseball coach. "You can call it a college league, but it's not going to be one as long as they're going to have the 'inside' rule. I want a place where my college kids can play and get better vs. college kids, not playing in a glorified Connie Mack League. I'm doing this for selfish reasons, but I'm not in it for the money."

Hines Park and DCI were by far the best teams in the LCBL, which was basically a three-team league in 1995. Michigan Honig fielded a competitive team in its first year, but Livonia Little Cacsars forfeited a doubleheader in the last week of the season because it didn't have enough players and was suspended from the four-team post-season playoffs.

The playoffs dwindled to three teams when Adray, a late entry into the LCBL, couldn't field enough players as a replacement

"You had to joke about it to keep from crying," Rose said. "When you start with five and end up with three, that tells you -omething

Next year's Adray team will be run by Rome's assistant coach at Henry Ford, Lee Bjerke, and be made up mently of Henry Ford

Rose also is hoping to add some teams from the Riverside A League in metro Detroit. He is in the process of applying for an All. American Ameteur Beseball As sociation franchise under the Detroit name. The champion, he anticipates, will get an automatic bid to the AAABA national championship in Johnstown, Pa.

Rose said it got to the point where he didn't enjoy watching his players from Henry Ford play LCBL games at Ford Field in Livonia because of the diluted talent pool.

The teams that suffered the most because of the residency rule were those from Livonia, where baseball talent has whittled considerably.

Livonia's Walter's Appliance, a longtime member of the LCBL, quit just prior to last season because coach Harvey Weingarden said his team could no longer compete with other teams for Rose remembers the glory days when the LCBL All-Star team challenged the powerful Detroit Adray All-Star team every year at Tiger Stadium and sometimes won. There wasn't enough interest from all the coaches to have an all-star game last summer.

"There was a time when Livonia had a bonafide Class A League, Adray, Connie Mack, E. Major and F-Major League, all run by the city," said Rose, who grew up in Livonia and played and coached in the Adray League. "I want kids growing up today to say, "There's great ball out there and someday I want to be good enough to make that team.' I,CHL co-director Lyle Trudeau said the exodus doesn't mean the end of the LCBL.

"We'll offer it like we always do," Trudeau said. "If they do go with Stu, and they like it for a couple years, more power to them. We just want the kids to play."

The LCBL used to have an eight-player residency rule per team and the issue is discussed periodically within the commission, Trudeau said. Trudeau doesn't know the chances of the rule being dropped. "I wouldn't even want to predict it," Trudeau said. "The cities that are used for residency usually have at least one Class A se head and you should get at least two first stringers from there."

Trudenu said the No. I diamond at Ford Field, acheduled to have new lights by the spring. may be available for rent if there in no LCBL.

Rose rented the field one day for his Fall Baseball League this year and didn't know if his summer league could afford its use for

"I won't ask for it," Rose said, But if they would like us to play there, then we'd consider it."

Flint Northern beats Ladywood

Defending state Class A girls basketball champion Flint Northern lived up to its No. 1 ranking Thursday with a 57-27 victory over visiting Livonia Ladywood.

The Blazers, who slipped to 1.3 overall, stayed relatively close for a half, trailing the Vikings, 28-14. LaShawn Grays and Deana Nolan paced the winners with 18 and 15 points, respectively.

"My kids played tough the first half," Ladywood coach Lisa McPhee said. "They (Northern) have a kid 6-4 (sophomore Tawana McDonald), and anything we threw up, she knocked down. Any shot in the paint she rejected. It was good preparation for our league."

Ladywood, led by senior Kathy Dankert's 10 points, opens Catholic League Central Division play Tuesday at home against Redford Bishop Borgess, defending state Class C champion and No. 1ranked.

FRANKLIN 57, JOHN GLENN 44: Senioz guard Tracy Rynklewicz poured in a career-high 32 points Thursday, propelling Livonia Franklin to a Western Lakes Activities Association victory at Westland John Glenn.

The Patriots are 5.0 overall and 1-0 in the WLAA, while the Pockets are 0.4

overall and 0.1 in the WLAA. Rynkiewicz was outstanding from the free throw line where she made 19 of 21 attempts. Franklin made 31 of 47 free throws as a team.

Rochelle Harris led Glenn with 19 points, Anja Protz grabbed 16 rebounds for the Rockets, who were 12 of 27 at the free throw line.

Franklin led 18-11 at the end of the first quarter and 31-20 at halftime. The Patriota extended their lead to 43-25 entering the fourth quarter. The Rockets rallied to cut the deficit to seven with three minutes left, but they couldn't get any closer as Harris and Jami Grigal both fouled out.

STEVENSON 52, W.L. WESTERN 35: Livonia Stevenson rebounded from a slow start Thursday to pull sway from visiting Walled Lake Western with a 21-5 fourth quarter outburst.

The Spartans (4-1 overall, 1-0 in the WLAA) found themselves down 10-2 entering the second quarter to the winless Warriors. Stevenson closed the gap to 22-18 by halftime and took a slim 31-29 lead into the decisive fourth quarter.

Senior forward Jenny Dulz paced the Stevenson attack with 14 points and eight rebounds. Senior center Stacey Nichols added 13 points and five rebounds and junior guard Lindsay Wilhelm chipped in with seven points and four boards. Western (0-4, 0-1) received 10 points from senior guard Jody Miller before she had to leave the game in an ambulance in the third quarter after being injured in a collision. We got a lot of good minutes from a

Madonna rallies past Wayne State Tartars

Here's a place the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference schools may choose to avoid in the future.

After what happened last week, who can blame them? The diamantling of Wayne State's volleyball team Friday iced it for Madonna University, three days after the Lady Crusaders knocked off Oakland University in four games. Both matches were at Madon-

The Crusaders were neither as effective nor as dominant against WSU, but they displayed their toughness. The Tartars took the first two games of the hest-of-five match, 16-14 and 15-12, before Madonna rallied to win the next three: 15-11, 16-14, 15-11.

"It was a big win for un," said Crusader coach Jerry Abraham, his team now 8 5. "It wasn't great played volley. hall for us. But what was good was that we came back to win.

"We were out of sync a hit, hut we were able to come

The Crusaders got strong matches from several sources - Kelly McCausiand (from Redford Union), 16 kills and 23 diga; Julia Martin (Livonia Stevenson), 19 kills and three solo blocks; Meg Paris, 52 as sists to kills and 13 digs.

VOLLEYBALL

Heather Steinhelper, 10 kills and 15 digs; Karin Sisung, nine kills and 16 digs; Erin Comment, 19 digs; and Vicki Toth (RU), 18 digs.

Madonna is on the road this week, visiting the University of Michigan-Dearborn Tuesday and the Tri-State Invitational Saturday.

Schoolcraft vs. alums

Schoolcraft College's volleyball team prepared for the start of its regular season Wedness day with a 15-12, 13-15, 15-10, 15-13 victory over its alumni

The alumni had an eightplayer team that included Nik ki Stubbs, Maria Evana-King, Chris Boyce Stellberger, Donna Konjaravich, Danielle Sheehy, Danielle Pfeffer, Nancy Ehlert and Julie Word. Coaches were Alisha Love and Andy King.

Setter Andrea Greer had 32 assists to lead the Schoolcraft versity while Trucy Sledz had 10 kills. Jamie Clark had eight kills, Sarah Pahirkiewicz totaled seven, Angeles Herminia got six, and Stacy Salus fin-

Lumina minivan delivers value for the dollar

By Anne Fracassa Avanti NewsFeatures

My neighbor Joe saw the shiny, red, front-wheeldrive Chevrolet Lumina minivan parked in my driveway. "I thought they were supposed to restyle this thing. It still looks like a Dustbuster," he said.

Joe works for General Motors, which proves your own employees can sometimes be your toughest critics.

The best part of this 1995 minivan, redesigned in 1994, is inside. The long, seemingly endless instrument panel hood was slashed in half. The result: A pleasant front window to stare out of, instead of a boring, larger-than-Texassized panel hood. Integrated in the front

Instrumentation placement has changed just a little. Switches for exterior and interior lights are now to the left of the instrument cluster and the rear window wiper control is on the right.

the seats are comfortable for my 2-year-old. Best part is the placement of the 5-point belts. They're locked in much like a NASCAR driver is.

Both the second and third row seats in the 7passenger version have been redesigned. They now fold up and slide forward for increased rear cargo area. The seats can also still be removed from the minivan for even more cargo area.

An annoying feature added this year is an automatic door-lock system. All doors lock automatically when the vehicle is shifted out of "park." Great feature on the safety front, but you have to manually unlock the vehicle when you stop. In the dark, it's a pain to find that tiny button.

Some GM vehicles have an automatic door-lock system that unlocks the doors when the vehicles is shifted back into "park." That feature is on my wish Lumina equipped with a 3.1-liter EFI V6 mated to a 3-speed 3 automatic transmission that provides an adequate 120 horsepower.

Also available is GM's fantastic 3800 V6 engine with 4-speed automatic transmission. You'll get 50 more horses — something you need when merging into traffic. It's a $619 option that's well worth the money.

Base price of the Lumina is $17,595, making it one of the lowestpriced minivans on the market. Even the top-ofthe-line fully equipped Lumina costs just over $23,000.

Good value. This "Dustbuster" won't clean out your bank account.
